PLEASANT VALLEY MENNONITE CHURCH

The Mennonite Church built a church building in 1883 near the towns of Ashley and Hudson in DeKalb County, Indiana. A Sunday School was organized in 1886. The largest church membership was approximately 40. In 1906, it was 35. The membership slowly decreased as the older members passed away and the younger people went to other churches until there were only eleven in 1914. Following the death of Eli Stofer, the building was sold in 1917 to what is now called Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren. Those remaining transferred their membership to the Mission in Fort Wayne.

Early members included Christian Newcomer and family that moved to DeKalb County in the spring of 1949 from Columbiana County, Ohio. Henry Bechtel, a native of Holmes County, Ohio, moved there in 1850. Abraham Hunsberger came in 1855. Coming from Stark County, Ohio were Henry Freed and his bride. A brother, John Freed, a native of Shenandoah County, PA came to live with Henry. About 1863, James Coyle, the first resident ordained minister, arrived. Eli Stofer, the next ordained minister, came from Columbiana County, Ohio in 1864. Peter Freed, John and Henry's father, came in 1864, also from the Columbiana County, Ohio area. Daniel Smith, a deacon from Ohio, located here in 1874. In Steuben County, Anthony Freed settled in Steuben County in 1831.

Early history of the Mennonites in DeKalb County, included Preacher Daniel Brenneman of Elkhart County, accompanied by several brethren, including Preacher J. M. Christophel, leaving on the Michigan Southern and Northern Indiana Air Line Railroad (now New York Central) for Corunna. Their purpose was to visit the Mennonites of DeKalb County in the year 1867. Services were held in a schoolhouse and on November 22, 1867, Daniel Brenneman's revered brother, Bishop J. M. Brenneman, received two members into the congregation. This made a total of seven members in the church. Brenneman held services in a schoolhouse near Peter Freed's home. The members lived about nine miles northwest of Waterloo, a station on the "Air Line Railway."

Even earlier information that John M. Brenneman had of the Mennonites in DeKalb County, included a family by the name of Amstutz in Allen County. He held communion for the Amstutz family, in the company of Bishop Henry Yother and a man named John Bechtel, his wife, and mother of DeKalb County. They came twenty miles from DeKalb County, to the Amstutz home to receive communion.

May of 1867, Preacher John F. Funk and Bishop Jacob Wisler, preached in DeKalb County in a schoolhouse, and also in the Evangelical Church. On June 28, 1868, George Brenneman, a bishop of Delphos, Ohio, and brother of John M. Brenneman, visited DeKalb County and conducted an ordination by lot for preacher. At the west of Goshen ministerial meeting, March 31, 1945, Preacher J. S. Hartzler recounted this ordination service. Hartzler said there were sixteen members of the Mennonite congregation in DeKalb County at the time of this ordination. Eli Stofer got all the votes cast, fifteen. The Mennonite leaders in charge of ordination were embarrassed, not knowing how to ordain by lot when only one person received votes. They asked Eli Stofer why he had not voted. He replied that he did not feel led to vote for anyone. They insisted that he vote. He said, "Well, if I have to vote, I will vote for Jim Coyle." The ministers then cast lots between the two brethren and – declared J. S. Hartzler- "You might know that God allowed the lot to fall on James Coyle." Coyle was never able to function very much as a minister. The consequence was that Stofer was in turn ordained preacher in 1871 and served until his death in 1915.

In the 1869 Herald of Truth John F. Funk refers to the DeKalb congregation as "still small." By 1883 the congregation had gained sufficient strength to build a meetinghouse. The first services were held in the new church building on September 16, 1883. Three years later Preacher Eli Stofer, Preacher Henry Huber, who had moved from Allen County, Ohio, to DeKalb County about 1882, and Deacon Daniel Smith visited the Gar Creek Mennonite Church. John S. Coffman, the evangelist of Elkhart, Indiana, labored with the Pleasant Valley congregation in a series of meetings twice in the year 1884, in 1889, and again in 1893. Coffman's diary gives a full account of these meetings. When he arrived at Waterloo on February 02, 1884, Preacher Henry Huber met him at the station. Coffman commented: "The brethren here have built a nice convenient house (of worship) and have it well lighted up at the evening services." John S. Coffman returned for another series of meetings in December 1884. Preacher James Coyle met him at Corunna. On this occasion Deacon Henry Brenneman of Elkhart accompanied Coffman. In connection with his June meeting of 1893, Coffman wrote in his diary: "May a brighter day dawn in the place, O God." During that series of meetings, Coffman held a communion service for the Pleasant Valley congregation and he comments in his diary that this is one of the few times which he has done so. (Usually, Mennonite bishops presided in communion services.) In 1893, the Sunday school which was being held in the Pleasant Valley meeting-house was a union Sunday school. Coffman explained this as, "outsiders helping principally in the work, that is, members of other churches." On April 28, 1893 Coffman "talked with old Brother Peter Freed again, who is now supposed to be ninety-seven years old. The exact record is lost on account of his father burning the record at the time of the 1812 War, so that he would not be old enough for military service. He sees splendidly and hears pretty well. He thinks he is over one hundred." On June 15, Coffman was again at the Pleasant Valley Church: "One more soul confessed Christ. This makes fourteen in all including the three that made a new start. The work seems revived here, and we must believe it has been in answer to prayer. May God now grant that the work may be permanent and that this may be a beginning of a great work here and many conversions." On July 2, 1893, Coffman again was in DeKalb County. He attended the Sunday school services at nine o'clock, and church services an hour later. Coffman spoke on the subject of baptism, and was followed by Preacher Elson of the Church of the Brethren, because one of the converts, Etta Urie, desired to be baptized by immersion. The first I ever saw two denominations work together in that way." The next day Coffman added: "I have hopes that the work in DeKalb can now prosper if it is vigorously continued. There were nine new converts baptized, and one that was not satisfied with previous baptism was done again. Two were reclaimed." The Herald of Truth contains the obituary of Peter Freed, 1795-1894, who had been born in Virginia, who married Hannah Miller in Columbiana County, Ohio, and who came to DeKalb County in 1864. He was a Mennonite over seventy years.

In 1905 Eli Stofer pleaded through the editor of the Herald of Truth for ministerial help. This may or many not have been the reason that Reuben R. Eversole located in the area in 1906, where David Burkholder ordained him as a preacher. He did not remain in the area, however, but entered the School of Medicine of Indiana University of 1907, and never returned to the Pleasant Valley Church. In 1906, Preachers Andrew Yontz and Silas Yoder held successful meetings to the Pleasant Valley congregation. There were seven converts, and the meeting-house was filled to overflowing thirty minutes before starting time in the last service of January 7. In 1905, William H. Bickel wrote in the Herald of Truth: "We have reorganized our Sunday school with Bro. W. Bickel as superintendent, and Bro. Brand assistant. The prospects are encouraging, but we need more outside help. We need a young minister to locate at this place. The field is white (right or ripe?) to harvest with middle-aged and young whose sympathies are with us, and there seems to be a tendency toward religion among the people in the community. My age and the condition of my health disqualify me from doing much of this important work." R. R. Ebersole reported in the Herald of Truth in 1906, that "the evening Bible meeting is progressing nicely, considering that this is a new line of work for this place." In 1906 there were thirty-five members in the congregation. In 1909, the congregation enjoyed a Sunday school meeting with many attendants from the more heavily populated areas of Northern Indiana. By 1914 the membership had dropped to eleven.

The Herald of Truth contains numerous obituaries from this congregation. For example, Anthony and Elizabeth (Benner) Freed were married in Stark County, Ohio, in 1858. (Anthony had settled in Steuben County, Indiana, in 1851.) Eli Stofer preached Mrs. Freed's funeral service in 1905.

On April 20, 1914, a legal agreement was signed by John H. Urey, elder of the Church of the Brethren, and Samuel C. Perkins, trustee, as well as by Eli Stofer, minister to the Mennonite church, and G. B. Brand, trustee. This agreement permitted the Church of the Brethren to transfer their Sunday school and church service from Putt School house into the Pleasant Valley Mennonite meeting house, "which is one mile south and one-half mile west, and there continue the same, using their literature, lesson helps, etc., as heretofore, and provide fuel for the stoves and lamps, and a janitor to care for the house, for all meetings that may be held in said house, and pay for same, as well as other necessary expenses of the Sunday school..." "The agreement permitted the Mennonites to work and attend said Sunday school, and after Sunday school may have preaching services or such other Christian meetings, except festivals, as they may desire during the remainder of the day on the second and fourth Sundays of each month, also on the Saturday evening preceding..." Please note: A copy of the original agreement can be located on pages 15-17.

One final effort was made to save the congregation from extinction. Preacher Silas Weldy was asked to come to DeKalb County and preach regularly for the dying Mennonite congregation, which he did for a number of years, beginning about the year 1915. But the effort proved to be in vain, and in 1917 the Mennonites sold their house of worship to the Church of the Brethren, which renamed it the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren. The DeKalb Mennonites buried in the Fairfield Center Cemetery, which is located at the intersections of county roads 12 and 13, are: Bair, Baughman, Bickel, Bixler, Bower, Brenneman, Carper, Conrad, Freed, Gardner, Hartman, Hening, Martin, Metzger, Miller, Myers, Resler, Rohrer, Shellenberger, Sherrick, Slaubaugh, Smith, Stahl, Weirich, and Wert. Preachers James Coyle, Eli Stofer, and Daniel B. Smith, an ordained preacher serving about 1889, all have tombstones in the Fairfield Center Cemetery. The grave of R. R. Ebersole, who died in 1960, is located in the Violett Cemetery south of Goshn, near Waterford.

Biographical sketch for James Coyle 1826-1906: He was born in Westmoreland Co., PA, September 28, 1826. He married Melinda Freed of Stark Co., OH, February 10, 1848 and had three sons and three daughters. James removed to DeKalb Co., IN, in 1864. He was the ordained preacher in the Pleasant Valley congregation of DeKalb Co., June 28, 1868, apparently by George Brenneman of Putnam Co., OH. Those who knew him felt that he had an honest and sincere and good heart, but he was not at all gifted as a speaker. J. S. Hartzler reported that he was ordained by lot when fifteen of the sixteen members of the congregation had voted for Eli Stofer. In October 1905, he was rendered almost helpless by a stroke. He died June 24, 1906, at the age of 79 and was buried in Fairfield Center Cemetery. John F. Funk and Eli Stofer preached his funeral service.

Biographical sketch for Henry Huber 1849-1923: He was born in Fairfield Co., OH, March 10, 1849. He moved to Putnam County about 1852, later to Allen Co., OH. He married Elizabeth Myers (1851-1923) on June 30, 1870. About 1880, he was ordained the preacher in the Pike-Salem congregation in Allen Co., OH and moved to DeKalb County about 1882. Within a few years he united with the Church of the Brethren and moved to Jefferson County, Tennessee. About 1900 he moved to Elkhart Co., IN, where he died November 3, 1923. Burial was in South Cemetery, Yellow Creek (brick) Church.

Biographical sketch for Eli Stofer 1836-1915: He was born April 26, 1836. He was the son of Samuel Stoffer. He married Elizabeth Weaver (1836-1914) on January 27, 1856. They had three sons: Oliver, Edwin O., John F., and four daughters: Delilah, Amanda J., Mary, and Ella N. He came to Fairfield Township of DeKalb Co., IN, probably from Stark Co., OH in 1864. He was an ordained preacher in the Pleasant Valley congregation in 1871. He made a valiant effort to build up the Pleasant Valley congregation and keep it from dying out. He also preached in the congregations of Elkhart Co., IN. In 1884, a cheese factory was built on his farm, and May 23 he began manufacturing, the firm name being Smithfield Dairy Association. The factory had the capacity of manufacturing 500 pounds of cheese a day. In his eightieth year, he passed away September 26, 1915 in DeKalb County. His remains were buried in Fairfield Center Cemetery.

Biographical sketch for Henry Freed: He was born June 28, 1842 in Stark Co., OH, his father being Peter Freed who was born in Shenandoah, PA. Henry's grandfather was John Freed, a native of York Co.,

PA of German descent. When Peter was nine, he moved to Columbiana County, OH where he married Hannah Miller, a native of that county, and daughter of Anthony and Susan Miller. Peter and Hannah had eleven children with Henry being the youngest. When Hannah died, Peter came to live in DeKalb County with his son Henry. Henry married Barbara Haynes, a native of Stark Co, daughter of Jonathan and Mary (Heinum) Haynes. Henry and Barbara had nine children; Peter L., Jonathan, Samuel, Alvin, Mary, William H., Martha, Emma E., and one infant. He was a farmer and stock-raiser.

The Origins and History of Pleasant Chapel Church

At the beginning a few hardy local folks gathered and they became The North Congregation in the Cedar Lake District of the Church of the Brethren. This church evolved into what is known as Pleasant Chapel located on the corner of Co. Rd. 8 and Co. Rd 19. These early members met sometimes at the Number 6 School and sometimes at the Mennonite Church. They and the Mennonites worked together in the Mennonite Sunday School and the Brethren had one Sunday each month for preaching services.

However problems arose and they separated from these arrangements. The Mennonite Church's attendance was very low and the church house was used only for an occasional service. The Brethren in the area debated the problem and strived hard to find a solution to their dilemma of where to hold their services. Suggestions were discussed to maybe using homes or some of the school houses. Sister Fannie Perkins thought they should "build us a church house of our own.". This idea did not appeal to many because of the lack of funds and the membership was very small. Also if it did not work out, the church house would be a glaring reminder of their failure. Fannie was a very determined lady and argued, "if we had a church house of our own, we could then get the members and the congregation would be assured." A suggestion was made if they tried hard and did what they could, maybe the Mission Board would furnish the balance of the money needed. A few gathered at the home of Elder J. H. Urey and discussed the matter. Petitions were circulated to see how much money could be promised toward the building of the church house, and they also wrote the Mission Board. At the suggestion of the Mission Board, the request was presented to the District Meeting at Wawaka that fall. The Church of the Brethren Mission Board advised that they start Sunday School in some school house and they would do what they could to help in the services.

The Brethren secured a contract for the use of the school house in District No. 1, the Putt School located on the corner of Co. Rd 4 and Co. Rd. 19. This also was very convenient for the local people attending Cedar Lake Church, 7 miles south. During those times of horse and buggies it was sometimes a great hardship to travel that far to go to church. The first Sunday in January of 1912 the first Sunday School was scheduled to be held and the temperature decided to dip to 18 degrees below zero. John Urey promised to be present to lead the congregation and phoned to ask if anyone thought there would be anyone there because of the inclement weather. It was told there would be at least thirteen people there. He hung up the phone after saying "I will be there". There were twenty-four present that first Sunday and while it was so very cold outside, the cheery little crowd provided much warmth inside. That first Sunday School was organized with Samuel Perkins, Superintendent; Sister Verda Myers, Chorister; Sister Mable Perkins, Secretary; Brother Vern Myers Treasurer, and Elder John M. Urey preaching once a month. Sunday School teachers were Lawrence Kurtz, teaching the Bible Class, Verda Myers teaching the Advanced Class, and Zoe Kurtz teaching the primary class. The next Sunday Verda Myers was selected to be the assistant Superintendent, Hazel Perkins was the assistant secretary and Cecil Kurtz was made the librarian. Transportation to church was either buggies or bobsleds or walking. On the first Sunday the donation was 70 cents. After meeting in the Putt School, the group notified the Mission Board that they were officially organized and again asked for help in the preaching services. They suggested that if John Urey was preaching once a month, that should be good enough. In March of 1912, Elder I. W. Kitson was there for about 10 days and then John H. Urey moved to Auburn. In September of 1912 again Elder Kitson was there for another ten days and again in November and December. During that time two were added to their number by baptism. Again, without preaching services, they appealed to the Mission Board in the spring of 1913 and were more successful receiving someone from the Mission Board to preach once a month for the next four years. Ten people were baptized during the period of March and April 1914 with Rev. Mahone leading the services. During this time, negotiations were started with the Mennonite church to purchase their building. Their attendance had dwindled down to 5 or 6. In the new organization formed twenty-three were baptized during January and February 1915 with the Reverends J. K. Eikenberry and Fisher ministering to the congregation. In the summer of 1916 three more people were baptized and again Reverends Eikenberry and Fisher were back again for a series of meetings that seven more were baptized. Three people were baptized in 1917 and negotiations were successful for the Mennonite Church along with 1/2 acre of ground.

In 1918, while the congregation was still meeting at the Putt School, the house was remodeled, papered and painted, and a covered porch was added onto the front with one front entrance. Before then, there were two front entrances, the west one for men and the east one for women and children. Then again Sister Fanny Perkins, encouraged and led everyone to raising up the building and a putting a basement under it. A furnace was installed at the same time. Previously two potbellied stoves were the only source of heat.

Until 1920 the business affairs of the church and the Sunday School were handled through and by the Sunday School organization, but during this year the business affairs of the church and the Sunday School were separated to a certain extent and Bro. Ellis McClish selected as church clerk and Samuel Perkins as treasurer for the congregation. Brother J. H. Urey was called to serve the congregation in their new church house in 1920 and served until 1925 at the time of his death.

On May 22, 1921, the new church building was called Pleasant Chapel suggested by John Smith. In 1941, Pleasant Chapel joint pastored with Cedar Lake Church of the Brethren. In 1950 and the year or two before Pleasant Chapel ventured on a building program. Joseph Ober was chosen chairman of the building committee and an addition of 22 feet by 60 feet was added on the North end of the church. The current membership of about 125 needed classrooms and the sanctuary was enlarged. A baptistry was added and a new platform and altar area. The improvements cost $11,000. Kendal Ober, Joseph's brother built the chimney. Cecil Miller troweled the basement cement. Harold Hecht supervised construction, with the men of the congregation supplying the labor. The volunteers used a slipscraper to remove the dirt during the basement excavation. The slipscraper was filled by hand, then pulled up out of the hole with a tractor. The men tunneled in. The Rev. Charlie Light was Elder and Ivan Fry was part time minister. The building fund of $2271 was small but much of the labor was donated. Other projects were undertaken to help pay the debt. Ernest Pairan donated a field, so the men of the Church planted it to wheat to help on the indebtedness. Several steers and pigs were fattened and sold to apply on the debt also. Folding chairs and hymnals were added to the ones that were already there. In September or October each year a Harvest Meeting was held and the Love Feasts were kept two times each year. Because of a joint sharing of ministers with the Auburn Church of the Brethren, church services started to be held first in the year 1954. During the year 1955 more hymnals were bought. Pleasant Chapel in cooperation with the surrounding Churches for many years held Pre-Easter services and worked together in a community Bible School held in Ashley. In 1957 a public address system was installed in the church. The Young Married Class was given permission to furnish a room for a nursery. The room under the balcony was chosen for this. In 1959 the church bought all new seats for the sanctuary with rest rooms being installed in the basement. Several members of the church again fattened pigs and steers to increase the church funds and the men raised a field of corn to add to the fund. At this time the church was painted. During this time period the Ladies' Aid paid for the campers who attended Camp Mack. Lester Fike was called to serve as the first full time pastor in 1962. Also in 1962 a new organ was purchased. The church bought a house and lot near the church for a parsonage. In the fall of 1962 the Ladies' Aid served meals at the Dekalb County Fair and after expenses there was $1100. The ladies continued serving meals for 9 years. A 50 year anniversary celebration with Rev. Robert Perkins preaching was also held.

The church yard was enlarged in 1963 by approximately three quarters of an acre and the first Chapel Chimes was published. This same busy year, the first church directory was printed. In 1964 storm windows were installed. In 1968 Rev. Fike celebrated 50 years in the ministry. Church roof and parsonage were painted with new carpeting installed in the sanctuary. In 1969 a group from Pleasant Chapel visited the Agape church. The church was painted this year. Fanny Perkins was honored on her 100th birthday in 1969. In 1970 the basement was remodeled and stone for the parking area was given by Earnest and Daisy Pairan.

Between the years of 1970 to 1984 the church annually held an outdoor church service in August at Herman Pankop's lake, 3 miles west of the church on county road 8. This was discontinued after Mr. Pankop's death in April 1985, but outdoor services have been held outside of the church since. A new heating system was installed in 1972.

Throughout the years, the Ladies Aid was very active with many activities. Among them: providing meals for funerals, rolling bandages, making comforters, and providing nursing homes with laprobes.

The Pleasant Time Preschool was established in the church building in 1981 to serve a need for early childhood education in the community. The first teacher was Betty Heid serving two years and Roselyn Wells was the director for about 6 years. For many years Gladys Stonebraker and Virgie Hartman gave the children Christmas gifts and Peggy Mills joined them in later years of the school. For about four years there were waiting lists and 31 children were enrolled in the Preschool. Several more teachers served until the Preschool closed down.

A church shelter was built in the back by the Men's group. Many meetings and activities were enjoyed outside.

A Youth Club for afterschool was formed about 1987. Five members of the church went for training including Julie Skelly, Rev. Jess Schload, Gladys Stonebraker, Roselyn Wells, and Jim Wells. This evolved into a shortened version until it too was discontinued.

The first deacons of the Pleasant Chapel church were Ellis McClish and Samuel Perkins. In May 1930 Joseph and Alvadah Ober, and Earnest and Daisy Pairan were chosen as deacons and deaconesses. The year 1935, Carl Thomas and Irma Thomas with Ray Skelly and Rebah Skelly were made deacons. In December 1948 John and Marjorie Reinoehl, Dale and Iris Thomas, and Russell and Alice Perkins were added to the Deacon and Deaconess group. In 1967 Eugene and Mary Hartman, Paul and Jean Reinoehl, with Harold and Laurine Skelly were made Deacons and Deaconesses. Paul and Pauline Thomas with Marvin and Julie Skelly also joined the deacon and deaconess list. In the last years the Deacons and Deaconesses have included Floyd and Mary Troyer, Jack and Mary Roudabush, and Tim and Cathy Wells. Sunday School Superintendents succeeding Sam Perkins, have been Ellis McClish, Russell Perkins, Carl Thomas, Walter Eldridge, Ocie Hamman, Russell Hartman, Ralph Kanaga, Dale Thomas, Joseph Ober, Paul Reinoehl, John Reinoehl, Myron Stackhouse, Floyd Troyer, Paul Thomas, Jr., James Wells, Terry Wilson, Marvin Skelly, and possibly others not mentioned.

information for the church history was taken from various histories written by Samuel Perkins and others.

PERSONAL ACCOUNT OF THE HISTORY OF PLEASANT CHAPEL

On January 1912, my grandma Fannie Perkins, my parents, Sam and Alice Perkins, four sisters, Inez, Mable, Rena, and Bessie, two brothers; Russell and Clarence were among the twenty-four folks that met at the Putt school-house to organize a Sunday School – I came along in July. Their number increased and in 1917 purchased the Mennonite Church and one half acre of ground. There was no basement and with two doors on ground level, one for the men and one for the women. There were two stoves, one on each side of the building. The pipe went up and met in the center and on to the roof. I remember going to church in the bobsled with a cover over the top and my father drove the horses. I probably was about 3 or 4 years old. Then cars came along. In 1917, a basement and wood furnace was put in with a porch and one entry door.

We had a free ministry and I remember John Urey, Paul Thomas' grandfather the best. Ruth (Kanage) Grambling and I were pals and after church he would go around greeting folk and he called Ruth and I his girls. That made me feel important.

We had revival meetings each year, usually two weeks was well attended by folks in the neighborhood.

We had children's day in June and decorated the church with flowers and things from our yards and a program by the children. The young folk had a meeting once a month in the homes with a carry-in meal a time of devotion followed by contest or games.

The women had a meeting once a month in the homes with a potluck dinner, a business meeting, and made comforters and clothing to send where needed.

We had a Harvest meeting in October with a potluck dinner and a program in the afternoon. We had no water so the men brought water in ten-gallon cans from what is now the parsonage.

The church was remodeled and enlarged with a new well, furnace, and new kitchen.

LITTLE PLEASANT CHAPEL EXPERIENCES RENEWED CONGREGATION PURPOSE

ASHLEY – The minister said, "Except the Lord build the house, they labor in vain that build it. Surely the Lord is in this place."

The Congregation responded, "This is none other but the house of God, and this is the gate to Heaven."

This is not exactly new in the order or worship, but it was said with a particular enthusiasm Sunday at the little Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, R. R. 1 Ashley, where the Rev. Roy S. Richey is pastor.

The little congregation of some 60 people was holding their dedication service after a $14,000 remodeling project. Special speaker was T. Wayne Rieman, Professor of Religion at Manchester College, North Manchester.

His message was "Life, Life, New Life."

Many of the members, in fact virtually all of them, had a part in the improvement project, which cost, not a lot of money by some standards, but considerable here.

People of the church this week are conducting activities, which testify of "New Life," the sermon subject. They include choir practice, a skating party, a leadership training meeting, a meeting of the Board of Deacons and a meeting of married people.

The regular pastor visited the sick and announced that Pleasant Chapel was one of the churches in Northern Indiana to make a 10 percent increase in their "Brotherhood Fund."

The little Pleasant Chapel Church, the type of many storied song and verse, has the spirit of purpose and evangelism, one who participated in the service and an evening dinner, which concluded the program, in the church basement said, observing "There was a smile of gladness on every face."

The struggle has been more grim, in times past, for the Pleasant Chapel Church. The first service was held in the Putt Schoolhouse, Jan. 7, 1912, The temperature, records show, was 18 below zero. But 24 persons met and elected Sam Perkins superintendent of their congregation.

It was remindful of the Brethren Church's humble beginning, when eight pious souls met on the banks of the Eder River, at Schwatzenau, Germany, with "the New Testament as our rule of faith and practice," and religious freedom a prime purpose.

Pleasant Chapel Marks 75 years of faith

The Auburn Evening Star, April 28, 1987

By SHERYL PRENTICE

ASHLEY — The time was Jan. 7, 1912. William H. Taft was in the White House and World War I had not yet begun. The Titanic would make its fateful voyage in just three months.

In DeKalb County that day, the thermometer registered a frigid minus-18 degrees as 24 hardy people braved the Sunday morning cold, gathered at the Putt School in Fairfield Township and organized a Sunday School. They either rode a horsedrawn buggy or walked, a distance of three or four miles for some.

The Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren grew out of this small group, and the congregation will mark its 75th anniversary this weekend with a two-day celebration.

The church will re-enact an old style Brethren service at 3 p.m. Saturday led by former pastor Lester E. Fike, with the men and women sitting separately in the sanctuary. A number of historical photographs, artifacts, and wedding pictures will also be displayed. A number of former pastors are also expected to attend, according to Pastor Jess Schload.

Some of Pleasant Chapel's members remember what those early years were like.

Bessie Perkins Miller, then seven years old, was there that first day. "It was cold," she said. "We came by bobsled in the winter. We wore long underwear, long dresses, knit underskirts, long black stockings, and high button shoes," she said, recalling efforts to keep warm on the two-mile ride.

Bessie's younger sister, Ruth Stackhouse, was also present that first day, indirectly. "I was born the following summer," she laughed. She appears in an early group photograph taken in front of the Putt School in 1913. The Putt School was near the intersection of County Roads 4 and 19, about a mile from the present building.

The Sunday School met in the schoolhouse for four years, purchasing the present building near County Roads 8 and 19 from a dwindling Mennonite group in 1917. The building was remodeled the next year, adding a basement and covered front porch. Two separate entrances, one for men and one for women and children, were removed and a single front door installed.

The minutes from that first meeting survive. Records show that Sam Perkins was elected as superintendent, Mabel Perkins as secretary, Vern Myers as treasurer, and Verda Myers as chorister. Lawrence Kurtz, Zoe Kurtz, and Verda Myers served as the first Sunday School teachers.

Most of the first members of Pleasant Chapel had been members of the Cedar Lake Church, seven miles to the southwest. Buggy travel made the distance cumbersome, however. In Sam Perkins' written history, he credits Fannie High Perkins with planting the idea for "a church house of our own."

John Urey served as the first pastor of the Cedar Lake North Church, as it was then known. Urey, a relative of Nobel Prize-winning atomic scientist Harold Urey, preached sermons once a month. He contracted typhoid in 1925 while attending a church conference and died on August 25.

Several part-time ministers served the church until 1962, when Lester Fike became the first full-time pastor.

S.D. Ober, Carl Thomas, and Ellis McClish, the trustees, chose the name "Pleasant Chapel" on May 22, 1921.

Alvada Smith Ober, now nearly 90 and a resident at Betz Nursing Home, recalls that one of the milestones of the church was acquiring a piano. Despite some controversy over whether instrumental music had a place in worship, she and superintendent Ellis McClish canvassed the community for funds in a buggy. "We got 12 or 15 dollars from the community. We bought a Kimball upright piano for $20," she said.

Her sister, Ocie Hamman, was then eight years old. "The children met in the balcony for Sunday School lessons," she said. Ober said that the men and women first met in separate classes. "We combined the men's and women's classes for better size. It was the sensible thing to do."

Bessie's and Ruth's parents were the first couple in the church to own a car. "It was a Ford Model T," said Ruth. "They bought it in 1915."

Daisy Perkins Pairan remembers that church was a somber occasion. "You had to be just as serious. Women had to wear a bonnet or prayer cover — a must — and nice-but-plain dresses. Men didn't wear ties. They were supposed to wear the 'Brethren coat.' They weren't supposed to wear ties even if they wore lapel coats."

Pairan said she and her sister Hazel created a stir when they wore hats to church for the first time. "Hazel said there was quite a bit of talk," she chuckled.

Pleasant Chapel remodeled its building again in 1949-50, enlarging the sanctuary and basement. Two classrooms, a baptistry, and a new altar area were added. Preschool Sunday School classes were begun in the 1950's and a nursery was added in 1957. The church bought a parsonage in 1962 and added additional parking in 1963.

The kitchen was redone in 1970-71 with new cupboards, and new bathrooms were installed. The Pleasant Time Preschool opened in the church building in 1981.

J. Dale and Iris Thomas were the first couple to be married in the church on June 15, 1941. Before that, weddings took place in the bride's or minister's home. Harold and Laurine Skelly's wedding, on Jan. 1, 1949, was the last wedding in the old sanctuary.

Donald and Beiva Perlich, married in the church on May 20, 1951, were the first couple wed in the new sanctuary.

The stories could go on. Pleasant Chapel's character has been shaped by its colorful history and its close familial ties. Nearly everyone is related to everyone else in some way. Many members are descendants of the church's founders.

The public is invited to join the congregation as it celebrates its heritage on Saturday, and looks to its future during the morning worship at 9:15 a.m.

Church Agreement.

This agreement made by and between the German Church, hereinafter called First Party, and the Church of the Brethren, hereinafter called Second Party Witness: That second party is to transfer their Sunday School and church services, which they are conducting at the Ruth School house, into First Party's house, which is one mile south and one fourth mile west and there continue the same, using their literature, lesson helps etc as heretofore, and provide fuel for the stoves and lamps, and a Janitor to care for the house, for all meetings that may be held in said house, and pay for same as well as other necessary expenses of the Sunday School from the Sunday School treasure.

First Party is to attend and ward in said Sunday School and after Sunday School may have preaching services or such other christian meetings, except festivals, as they may desire during the remainder of the day on the second and fourth Sundays of each month, also on the Saturday evening preceding and second party is to have a like privilege on the first and third Sunday of each month, also on the Saturday evening preceding.

Should there be a fifth Sunday in a month same shall, as heretofore at fourth, belong to first Party in the even months and to second Party in the odd months, and should either party desire to hold such meetings during the week their time shall be the unmentioned days following the Sunday.

Should either party arrange to have a series of meetings that would be likely to extend beyond the other party's date or dates as herein specified, then such party shall at least ~~four weeks~~ <sup>give to the other party a written notice stating</sup> ~~providing such meetings~~ the time said meetings are expected to begin and the probable duration of same when all other appointments, except the Sunday school shall be withdrawn during the continuance of said meetings.

This agreement to begin April 1st 1914 and be continuous from year to year but may be terminated after three years by either party.

giving to the other a six month written notice Should anything come up which this agreement does not cover and on which said parties cannot agree same is to be left to a committee of three whose decision is to be final and adhered to by said parties, said committee to be appointed, one by each party and the third by the two thus appointed.

CONTRACT

This contract was typed as written, misspellings and all. The original was double-spaced so was retyped to save room. The original is in the possession of the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren.

This contract by and between the Church of the Brethren, and is this Contract represented by its Trustees, knows as the party of the first part, and the Indiana-Michigan Mennonite Mission Board, a corporation under the laws of Indiana, and in this contract represented by its Secretary, hereafter known as the party of the second part, WITNESSETH:

1. The party of the first part who owns a church house about four miles south west of Hudson, Indiana, known as Pleasant Valley church, agree to permit the party of the second part the use of the said church house during the second Sunday of each month for preaching services, morning and evenings; it being understood that the party of the first part is permitted to conduct the Sunday School in the morning and the Christian Worker's meeting, or similar services in the evening. But such performance not to be held so as to hinder the conducting of the preaching service at the regular time by the party of the second part.
2. This permission to the party of the second part shall continue in force so long as they do not fail to hold such services for three consecutive months, or until there are no members of the Mennonite Church in that community who are attending such services.
3. For this permission to the party of the second part there shall be no charges whatever, it being understood that such permission is granted because of a reduction in the selling price of the Church House by the party of the second part of the party of the first part. The party of the first part shall be responsible for fuel, light, janitor, etc., on the said second Sunday of each month during the preaching services by party of the second part, the same as at services conducted by party of the first part.
4. This permission to the party of the second part does not extend to holding of revival or continued meetings, or other services of whatever nature, except by this written permission from the party of the first part.
5. If the party of the first part desires to hold revival meetings or desires to extend such meeting over the time allotted to the party of the second part, it has permission to do so upon giving not less than one weeks notice to the office of the party of the second part, and by sending written permission to party of the second part to use said church house either the fourth Sunday of the preceeding month, or the fourth Sunday of the same moth and party of the second part shall be entitled to all benefits and privileges on such Sunday as upon the allotted time herein specified. Office of the party of the second part is located at 121 West Cleveland Avenue, Elkhart, Indiana.
6. If at any time the party of the second part does not intend to use said Church House on the Sunday allotted, or if no minister or worker of the Mennonite church appears to conduct the services, the party of the second part forfeits its right for that month.
7. If the party of the first part shall at any time remodel or repair the church house which necessitates the discontinuance of all services temporarily, the party of the first part shall not be responsible to the party of the second part to provide a place of worship at that time, but party of the first part agrees to send written notice of their intentions not less than one week before such work is begun.
8. Should any disagreement as to the provisions of this contract arise and which the party of the first part and the party of the second part are not able to satisfactorily adjust said parties shall each select one brother to represent them upon a committee of arbitration, and the two brothers thus selected shall select a third and disinterested party. This committee shall hear and consider the matter and render a decision, and said decision shall be final and binding upon both parties to this contract.

Subscribed to at Auburn, Indiana, this 21st day of Nov, 1917. Party of the first part was signed by Samuel C. Perkins, trustee, William H. Freed, trustee, and Andrew L. Ober, trustee. Party of the second part was signed by Jacob K. Bixler, secretary of the Indiana-Michigan Mennonite Mission Board.

SPECIAL BUSINESS MEETING
of the Pleasant Valley Mennonite Congregation,
November 20, 1917.

All the members of the Pleasant Valley Mennonite Church, located in Fairfield township, De Kalb county, Indiana, met at the home of Edward Baird for a special business meeting on Tuesday, November 20, 1917 at 1:30 P.M.

George Brand was chosen chairman of the meeting and Jacob K. Bixler, the secretary of the Indiana-Michigan Mennonite Mission Board, as secretary of this meeting.

Since the disposal of the church property was the chief matter for consideration and as no business meeting had been held for a few years and there being a vacancy on the Board of Trustees of said church, it was deemed advisable to re-elect the two remaining trustees to succeed themselves and to elect another trustee to fill the vacancy caused by the removal of William Bickel.

On motion and unanimous vote, the brethren Samuel Freed and George Brand were elected trustees to succeed themselves and Edward Baird was elected as trustee to fill the vacancy.

It was moved and passed unanimously, that the three trustees now elected be hereby authorized to sell, convey, or dispose of the church property to such party or parties as may purchase the same, and to do so to the best advantage to this congregation, and to receive the purchase money.

Moved and carried, that the trustees be authorized to forward the purchase money to the Indiana-Michigan Mennonite Mission Board, one half of said sum to be used on the debt of the Ft. Wayne Mission Workers Home and the other half to be used in the Church Building Fund to buy, erect or repair church houses in weak congregations in the Indiana-Michigan Mennonite Conference district.

Adjourned.

QUIT-CLAIM DEED

THIS INDENTURE WITNESSETH, that TROYER MEADOWS, INC., an Indiana Corporation, and FLOYD TROYER AND MARY KATHRYN TROYER, husband and wife and each over the age of eighteen (18) years RELEASE AND QUIT-CLAIM to: JOHN E. HARTMAN, RALPH KANAGA, and JOE MORR, TRUSTEES OF PLEASANT CHAPEL CHURCH OF THE BRETHREN AND THEIR SUCCESSORS IN OFFICE of DeKalb County in the State of Indiana in consideration of One Dollar ($1.00) and other valuable consideration, the receipt and sufficiency of which are hereby acknowledged, the following described real estate in DeKalb County, in the State of Indiana:

Part of the Southwest Quarter (1/4) of the Southwest Quarter (1/4) of Section Twelve (12), Township-35-North, Range-12-East, Fairfield Civil Township, DeKalb County, Indiana and more particularly described as follows:

Beginning at a railroad spike found at the southwest corner of the Southeast quarter (1/4) of said Section Twelve (12); thence North-87°-25'-05"-East (assumed bearing and basis of all bearings in this description) on and along the south line of said quarter (1/4) section, 165.00 feet to a P.K. Nail set; thence North-0°-33'-08"-West parallel the west line of said quarter (1/4) section, 330.00 feet to an iron rod set; thence South-87°-25'-05"-West parallel the south line of said quarter (1/4) section, 165.00 feet to an iron rod set on the west line of said quarter (1/4) section; thence South-0°-33'-08"-East on and along the west line of said quarter (1/4) section, 330.00 feet to the point of beginning, containing 1.250 acre and subject to all legal right-of-ways and easements.

The above described real estate description was taken from Survey No. 94132 prepared by David K. Wolf, P.E., L.S. on December 12, 1994.

By way of recital, grantors state that they are the successors in interest and in title to the owners of relevant portions of the Southwest Quarter (1/4) of the Southwest Quarter (1/4) of said Section Twelve (12), Township Thirty-Five (35) North, Range Twelve (12) East in DeKalb County, Indiana, as identified in that certain Warranty Deed dated June 2, 1965 and recorded June 2, 1965 in Deed Record Volume 139, page 192 wherein grantors were Ivan Buckmaster and Ruby Buckmaster, husband and wife, and Floyd Troyer and Mary Kathryn Troyer, husband and wife, to which Warranty Deed further reference is made below in this Quit-Claim Deed; Ivan Buckmaster and Ruby Buckmaster having deeded all of the remainder of their right, title and interest in and to real estate in the Southwest Quarter (1/4) of the Southwest Quarter (1/4) of said Section Twelve (12) to grantors Floyd Troyer and Mary Kathryn Troyer by that certain Warranty Deed dated July 9, 1965 and recorded on the same date in Deed Record Volume 139, page 286.

By way of further recital, grantors Floyd Troyer and Mary Kathryn Troyer further represent that they have transferred their right, title and interest in and to this real estate to Troyer Meadows, Inc., an Indiana Corporation, but joined in this Quit-Claim Deed to clarify any questions there may be in the future relating to the reversionary interest discussed below in this Quit-Claim Deed.

By way of further recital, grantors state that the above-described real estate consists of two (2) separate parcels of adjoining real estate, one of which consists of a .75 acre tract previously conveyed to grantee by that certain Warranty Deed dated June 2, 1965 and recorded the same date in Deed Record Volume 139, page 192, which Warranty Deed is a Corrective Warranty Deed to correct an error in the description of the premises earlier conveyed by Warranty Deed dated June 13, 1963 and recorded July 30, 1963 in Deed Record Volume 136, page 102. Both of said Deeds contained a provision that the premises described therein were to be held by grantee or their successors "So long as used for church purposes, and when no longer so used to revert to the then owners of the Southwest Quarter (1/4) of the Southwest Quarter (1/4) of said Section Twelve (12). . .". As the current owners of said Southwest Quarter (1/4) of the Southwest Quarter (1/4) of said Section Twelve (12), grantors are deeding to grantee this reversionary interest, so that said reversionary interest is hereby extinguished.

By way of further recital, grantors state that they are actually conveying a new .50 acre parcel to grantee, the description of which is included in the above described real estate, and which .5 acre tract is more particularly described as follows, to-wit:

From a railroad spike found at the southwest corner of the Southwest quarter (1/4) of said Section Twelve (12) proceed North-87°-25'-05"-East (assumed bearing and basis of all bearings in this description) on and along the south line of said quarter (1/4) section, 132.00 feet to a P.K. Nail set at the point of beginning of this description, said P.K. Nail set also being at the southeast corner of a tract of real estate conveyed by Ivan Buckmaster et al to Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren by Warranty Deed dated June 2, 1965 and recorded June 2, 1965 in Deed Record Volume 139 at page 192; thence North-86°-25'-05"-East on and along the south line of said quarter (1/4) section, 33.00 feet to a P.K. Nail set; thence North-0°-33'-08"-West parallel

MINISTERS

In 1912, Elder John H. Urey was called to preach for the assembly of our organization conducted in Putt schoolhouse, once a month. In March 1912, Elder I. W. Kitson served for about 10 days. In August 1912 Brother Urey and his family moved to Auburn. September 1912, Brother I. W. Kitson again served the new congregation for about a week. In November and December he was there for about two weeks. In the spring of 1912, the Mission Board was contacted, and they supplied a preacher for services once a month for four years. In March and April 1914, Rev. Mahon held a series of meetings. In January and February 1915, Rev. J. K. Eikenberry and Rev. Fisher had a series of meetings. During October 1916, Rev. Eikenberry and Rev. Fisher were back again. August and September of 1919, Rev. D. R. Murry held a series of meetings.

Brother J. H. Urey was called to serve the congregation in their new church house in 1920, and continued to minister there until 1925. At this time, while attending Annual Conference at Winona Lake, he contracted typhoid fever and while under professional care, he succumbed to death, and entered his heavenly home on August 21, 1925. John H. Urey was born January 6, 1864 in Fairfield Township, DeKalb County, Indiana. J. H. Elson baptized him in 1892, at that time a minister at the Cedar Lake Church.

Mr. Urey was a very successful schoolteacher, mostly teaching in the Hessle Castle School in Fairfield Township, a farmer, and insurance agent in addition to his 'free ministry' to the church he loved and served. He conducted several evangelistic crusades and was accompanied by his daughter, Irma, who had charge of the hymn singing.

In 1928, Clyde C. Cripe was a pastor. Sometime between 1928 and 1948, Gorman Zook was a pastor. Russell Sherman was the minister between 1932-1941. Charles Imler pastored summer 1937-1938. Rev. H. P. Garner was an Evangelist in May 1939. Joint pastoring with Cedar Lake Church, Rev. Long served the Pleasant Chapel Congregation at the same time. Melvin Ritchey was a pastor in the summer of 1948. Ivan Fry served as pastor during 1948-1952. About 1949-1950 Rev. Claude Leslie joined Pleasant Chapel and served as a free minister when there was no minister present. Robert Perkins entered the Ministry in 1952. Glen Stauffer was the part time minister from about 1952-1954. Rev. Stauffer resigned in 1954 and since the Auburn Church was without a pastor, Pleasant Chapel agreed to join them in hiring Bro. Israel Gorden as pastor of both churches. He served from 1954-1959. In May of 1955, Brother Claude Leslie was advanced to Eldership. In 1955, Brother Glenn Mulligan was chosen as Elder. Bro. Robert Perkins was re-licensed to the ministry for a three-year period and in 1956, he was ordained to the ministry. In 1957, Rev. Israel and Mrs. Gorden were ordained to the eldership. From 1959-1962, Bro. Ivan Fry was a part-time minister. In 1962, Pleasant Chapel decided to hire a full-time minister. Reverend Lester Fike was the first full-time pastor. October 1965, there were Evangelistic Services at Pleasant Chapel with J. Oliver Dearing. In Oct. 1966, there were Evangelistic services with Rev. Jesse Whitacre. Reverend Fike resigned in 1969 and Rev. Roy Richey was hired. He was the minister from 1969-1972 with a joint pastorate including Pleasant Chapel and Cedar Lake Church of the Brethren. Thomas Deal was also pastor to both Cedar Lake and Pleasant Chapel in 1972-1978. Paul Thomas, Jr., the great-grandson of John Urey, was ordained to the ministry in 1972. The Evangelist for Nov. 1975 was James McKinnell. Jack Keebaugh was a summer pastor in 1977. Emery Kinter was the second full-time minister hired serving 1978-1985. Robert Ebey served as interim pastor from 1985-1986. Pleasant Chapel's next full-time minister was Jess Schload who began serving as Pastor in 1986. After Jess Schload moved back to Pennsylvania, Douglas Gehr became pastor. Serving after Rev. Douglas Gehr was Rev. Don Jordan. Currently Jeff Fackler is the pastor of the congregation.

MINISTERS, MEETINGS, AND REVIVALS

Helping the hungry

Goats owned by Sarah Wright (second from right) and Jay Wright (right) visited the Aug. 27 worship service at the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, Ashley, as a celebration symbol when the congregation raised enough funds to send two milking goats and 267 pounds of seed corn to famine-ravaged North Korea. With the Wrights are witness commission chairman Tim Wells (left) and Pastor Jeff Fackler. The witness commission purchased the first goat for $250 from its budget, and the congregation raised the additional funds for the second goat and the seed corn. The congregation's funds will be sent to the Church of the Brethren's Global Food Crisis Fund, which will purchase and transport the animals and seed overseas to provide milk and food to preschools and orphanages. According to the GFCF, American goats produce four times the amount of milk that Korean goats do. A dollar purchases three pounds of seed corn.

FAIRFIELD TOWNSHIP SUNDAY SCHOOLS MEET

In an Institute at the Mennonite Church in North Fairfield Last Sunday—Prof. Moody Talks.

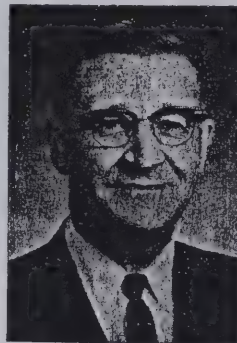

The Sunday schools of Fairfield township held an institute at the Mennonite church last Sunday afternoon and evening, which was largely attended. The afternoon program consisted of general discussions for the benefit of the Sunday school workers, and there was considerable interest manifest in the afternoon program.

In the evening a song service was held, led by Miss Urey, and following this a reading by Bessie Perkins and a duet by the Misses Urey.

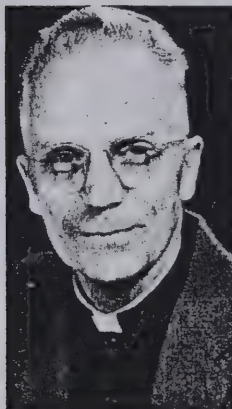

The address of the evening was made by Prof. A. L. Moody of Waterloo, who gave a very practical talk along Sunday school work, and the advance interest of the characters in life that are strengthened by actual contact in the Sunday schools. Following this H. C. Willis, of Waterloo, made a short talk on the practical side of the Sunday school, showing the things that should be made uppermost in the Sunday schools.

Deal named pastor of two area churches

The Rev. Thomas W. Deal, new pastor of the Pleasant Chapel and Cedar Lake Churches of the Brethren, near Ashley and Cornuna, respectively, will be installed in a service to be held in the Cedar Lake Church Sunday, September 10 at 7:30 p.m. Local members will assist the Rev. J. Wilburn Lewallen, Northern Indiana District Executive Secretary, of Nappanee, in the installation service.

The Rev. Deal is a native of Onkama, Michigan, and was ordained there in 1963. He served the Fairview Church of the Brethren, Lafayette, Indiana, from 1961-1963 as parttime pastor. From Sept. 1, 1966 to June 1, 1971 he taught in the philosophy department at McPherson College, McPherson, Kansas. He taught philosophy and also served as chairman of the philosophy department at Austin Peay State University, Clarksville, Tennessee, from June 1, 1971 to June 1, 1972. In addition, at Austin Peay State, his position included working with administration in program planning and curriculum development.

His educational background consists of a B.S. degree from Manchester College (1956-1960); a B.D. degree from Bethany Theological Seminary, Oak Brook, Illinois (1960-1963); and he was awarded his PH.D. in Philosophy from Southern Illinois University, Carbondale, Illinois, in 1971.

Rev. Deal is married to the former Nancy E. Knapp of Beaverton, Mich. They are the parents of two daughters, Mandy 10, and Melanie 6, both students at the McKenney-Harrison School in Auburn.

The Rev. Deal succeeds the Rev. Roy S. Richey who has served the two churches for the past three years, and is retiring from the pastoral ministry.

Both the Pleasant Chapel and Cedar Lake Churches extend an invitation to attend their services and meet their new pastor.

SUMMERFEST ENTERTAINER — Keith Conner of KC Ministries of Marion will bring his song-and-comedy ministry to Summerfest, to be held Saturday, Aug. 15, at Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, 1983 County Road 8, Ashley. The community is invited to a free ice cream social and block party at 6 p.m., followed by Conner's performance. Conner is a licensed minister in the First Baptist Church of Marion. His ministry includes a variety of characters and musical styles, from lighthearted contemporary to rich worship. He has appeared at many churches, retreats, youth camps, concerts, revivals, worship services and banquets.

Former Pastor Leaves For North Carolina

Family night was observed at the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren last Thursday with a carry-in supper shared by attending members and their families. It was also a farewell party for Rev. Claude Leslie, a former pastor, who is leaving shortly to do missionary work in North Carolina. Rev. Leslie showed slides of Pleasant Chapel and its members during the time he was their spiritual leader.

As a memento of their regard, he was presented with an electric slide viewer and several rolls of special film for his camera.

Evangelistic Services At Pleasant Chapel

Evangelistic services will start at the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren on Monday night, October 17th and continue through Sunday Night, October 30th, with Rev. Allen Weldy, of Creekville, Kentucky as the evangelist. The meetings will be held nightly at 7:45 and there will be inspirational singing along with special musical numbers. Rev. Weldy is from Northern Indiana having served in the school business in and around Elkhart for 33 years, before being obtained into the ministry four years ago. He and Mrs. Weldy are now beginning their fifth year as Directors of the Flat Creek Mission at Creekville. As a layman Rev. Weldy was active in local, district, and Brotherhood work and served as president of the National Council of Men's Work for two terms. Brother Weldy states that coming back to northern Indiana will seem like home to him. Some of the sermon topics Rev. Weldy will be speaking on are: "God's Word", "Follow Me", "Ye are My Witnesses", "Back To God", "Complete Submission", "Proof of Discipleship", "But I Say Unto You", "Hope of Salvation", "It's Getting Late", "What Shall It Profit?", "God's Redemptive Power", and "The Church".

A special invitation is extended to all to attend.

He Made It Again

BY THE REV. LEO H. MILLER,
Pastor Of The Church Of The Brethren.

And the vessel that he made of clay was marred in the hand of the potter: So he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it."—Jeremiah 18:4.

IN THIS SCENE down at the potter's house there is a great deal of the Gospel. Of all the prophets, Jeremiah seems to be held in high regard by our Lord. In reading the Gospel story, one can see how it was that Jesus was quite familiar with the writings of Jeremiah. One thing they have in common is an appreciation for the ordinary things. Jeremiah found his parables in the common things of nature and in the every day paths of human life, rather than in what was strange or unusual. The prophet is attracted to the common scene of those days (but not these days, for the potter's wheel is very nearly obsolete) a potter moulding a piece of clay, and somehow he marred it in the making. But instead of casting it on the rubbish pile, he set himself to make it again and to mold it anew. The prophet thought this was an acted parable of God, for God is always making things again.

OUT IN nature, how true the parable seems. We wonder not at God making the Springtime, but that He makes it again year after year, all the glorious seasons He maketh again. With all the infinite creating power belonging to God, yet do we behold Him working by way of repetition. Each year that we have lived, Spring has come to us with its music and we never grow weary for He maketh it again.

And of the Book of Books, it can be said, 'He maketh it again!' What was this Book to you in childhood? It was a Book you dimly understood. But years have passed; knowledge has come, temptation, sorrow burdens, sin and failure, and being led into the heart of the Scripture, you embrace its promises, and they give you peace. Through the chattering experiences of life God makes the Book again, even the book of your childhood.

Or think of life. There never would be any touch of brotherhood but for heaven's way of repetition. The Great Creator seems to find His joy in making the same thing a multi-million times. Once in the long ago He made a face; ever since He has been making it again. Likewise He made a human heart; ever since He has been making it again. And you were a baby once, innocent and ignorant, with no language but a cry, and now you have a little baby of your own. He maketh things again.

BELOVED, turn with us to Christ, the express image of the Person of God, and in Him we do find the same beautiful persistence—to make things. And mark you He made them beautifully. He made the wine out of common water. He made the feast out of a few small loaves, and a calm sea out of an angry storm. But Christ's real glory lies in His power to remake men. Think of the Gadarene demoniac; once he had been a happy man, but now a beastly spectacle. When Christ met him, He pitied him, and spoke to him with that re-creating and regenerative power, and made him again. Likewise, Christ touched the leper and made him again. When He came to the house of despised Zacchaeus, we find Zacchaeus a remade individual.

Christ is the Master Potter. He is all we need. For all who have made a mess of life, it is either the rubbish pile or Christ. It is either steady sinking to the lowest levels or surrender to this Master Potter. Which will it be for you? He is able to save to the uttermost, for all power hath been given unto him, to make you, even you—again.

The Rev. Leo H. Miller.

Church welcomes Schloed family

Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren in rural Ashley has had a new minister since July 6, when Rev. Jess L. Schloed was installed as pastor during the 9:15 a.m. worship service.

Rev. Charles Bleber, district minister of the Northern Indiana District of the Church of the Brethren, delivered the morning sermon and conducted the installation service.

Rev. Schloed graduated from Warwick High School in Litz, Penn. in 1971, and earned his B.A. at Anderson College in 1982. He graduated from Bethany Theological Seminary in Oak Brook, Ill. this past June with a Master of Divinity degree. He was ordained on June 22 in the Litz Church of the Brethren.

He is married to the former Doris Weinhold. He and his wife are the parents of two sons, Timothy and Nathan.

The congregation invites the community to join them in welcoming the Schloed family to DeKalb County.

IN CONCERT SATURDAY — The Singing Thomas Family of Pauls Valley, Okla., will present a gospel concert Saturday at 7 p.m. In the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, 2010 County Road 8, Ashley. The family has recently recorded their eighth cassette album featuring eight original songs. The public is invited. (Photo contributed)

Professor to conduct spiritual growth workshops Oct 31, 1983

ASHLEY — Nancy Faus, campus minister and associate professor at Bethany Theological Seminary, Chicago, Ill., will be the guest speaker at the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren for a Spiritual Growth Weekend and Homecoming Saturday and Sunday.

Faus will conduct a workshop Saturday at 3:30 p.m. for anyone interested in the use of music in the worship setting. A mini-workshop on worship and worship leading is planned for 6 p.m., with an evening worship at 7 p.m. Faus will speak on "Living the Psalms."

Faus will deliver the message during Sunday morning worship at 9:15 a.m., with special music by Alan and Barb Flory. A carry-in meal will be served at 11:45 a.m. The Florys will present an afternoon music program at 1 p.m.

Faus, an ordained minister in the Church of the Brethren, has held her present position at Bethany Theological Seminary since 1975. She is active on a number of committees and boards, and is chairman of the denomination's new hymnal project. She is also a published author. She is married with two children.

The public is invited to attend any of these events.

Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren in the 1980's.

Article from the Evening Star Aug. 18, 1994 Ashley church expands facility

By SHERYL PRENTICE

ASHLEY — The congregation of Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren broke ground for a new, handicapped-accessible entrance during the Sunday worship service Aug. 6.

Construction began Monday on a 36-by-31-foot addition that will feature a ground-level entrance, fully accessible restrooms, a new coat rack area, and a wide entrance into the existing sanctuary designed to improve traffic flow. The addition will be completed about Nov. 1.

Pastor Douglas Gehr said the addition's accessibility will welcome everyone to the building and improve traffic flow from the sanctuary to Sunday School classrooms.

"It is a step forward to a larger, more adequate facility," Gehr said.

The entrance area is the first of three planned phases. A second phase in the future will be a new sanctuary and classrooms, followed by renovation of the existing building into a fellowship hall.

The project is the first building expansion since an addition to the sanctuary in 1950-51. The basement area was renovated in 1970-71 and the parsonage was remodeled in 1991. A new roof was installed on the existing building in July. An outdoor pavilion was built by the men's fellowship group in the early 1980s.

Building committee members Lowell Prentice, Marvin Skelly, Sally Wilson, Harold Skelly, Rick Cook, Ralph Kanaga and Pastor

Douglas Gehr began the planning for the addition four years ago. WKM & Associates Inc. of Auburn is the architect for the project, and J&J Construction is the contractor.

Kanaga and Jack Roudabush will serve as construction managers during the project. They will also coordinate volunteer labor.

Julie Skelly heads the fund-raising campaign, assisted by Polly Thomas, Mary Roudabush and Iris Thomas.

The church's ministries include a bus ministry to Ashley and Hudson, Youth Club for grades 1-5, junior and senior high youth groups, an annual Vacation Bible School, missions of the denomination, special events, and participation in various community service projects.

pledge drive chairman. Hartman is chairman of the stewards commission, which maintains the building and grounds. Prentice chairs the building committee that planned the addition, and Gehr is the church's pastor. (Star photo by Sheryl Prentice)

DeKalb County Couple Married 50 Years

MR. AND MRS. ELZA JORDAN

Mr. and Mrs. Elza C. Jordan of north of Garrett will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary July 4 with an open house from 2 to 5 p.m. at the Grange hall, south of Garrett. Both have resided in DeKalb county all of their lives.

Mrs. Jordan, the former Carrie Haynes, was born May 23, 1895, a daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Ed Haynes of Garrett. She has two brothers, G. Heber Haynes of northeast of Garrett and Lloyd Haynes of Lake James, and two sisters, Mrs. Walter Kern of 914 South Randolph street, Garrett, and Mrs. Clair Tuttle of northwest of Garrett.

Mr. Jordan was born March 26, 1896, a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. William Jordan of Avilla. He has one sister, Mrs. Donald Kennedy of St. Johns.

Mr. and Mrs. Jordan were married July 4, 1915 in Auburn. They have seven children, who are: Loyal Jordan of 1368 South Randolph street, Garrett, Robert and Dallas Jordan of Rt. 1, Auburn, Donald and Franklin Jordan of Rt. 3, Auburn, Junior Jordan of Rt. 2, Avilla and Mrs. Merle Workman of 1406 South road, Garrett. There are 27 grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Mr. Jordan is a retired farmer and contractor. He and his wife spend the winter months in Tampa, Fla., and visit their family during the summer months. They are members of the Cedar Lake Church of the Brethren, northeast of Garrett.

The Rev. and Mrs. Leo Miller will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary Thursday, December 28, and will hold open house during the afternoon and evening in their Palace Ranch home on Lake Ethel, three miles northwest of South Whitley.

The Millers were married in the home of the bride's parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Mishler, near South Whitley on December 28, 1911 with Mrs. Miller's uncle, the Rev. John Mishler, elder of the Spring Creek Church officiating. Parents of the Rev. Mr. Miller are the late Mr. and Mrs. Emery Miller who resided near Goblesville.

The Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Miller are the parents of three children, the Rev. Vernon Miller of Whittier, California; Mrs. Don Gatz of Earlimart, California; and Mrs. Loren Metzger of South Whitley Route 2. They also have six grandchildren. The two children in California will be unable to be here for the celebration.

The children of the Millers have been busy during the past year making arrangements for complete scrapbook of their parents' pastorates during the forty-one years as pastor and wife of churches in Indiana, California, Oregon, Washington, and Alberta, Canada. Messages, pictures and letters from members of their former pastorates have been received.

Mr. Miller's pastoral work began in 1918 at the Union Grove

Church of the Brethren, just after his graduation from Manchester College and the Biblical Seminary in Chicago. They have traveled extensively and made many friends during his ministry and evangelistic work. In 1924 they moved to California where the Rev. Mr. Miller was pastor of a church for six years and then to Arrow Wood, Alberta, Canada before moving back to Indiana at Fort Wayne. He served the South Whitley Church of the Brethren as pastor before going to the Yakima Church in Washington, his last pastorate. He retired from the ministry in 1959.

The Rev. and Mrs. Miller would enjoy having friends and relatives visit with them during the afternoon and evening on their Golden Wedding Anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Orie C. Brand

By Dotie Duncan
Women's Editor

Still living in the same house where they started their married life, Mr. and Mrs. Orie C. Brand, Ashley, will celebrate their 70th wedding anniversary, Sept. 30.

"It was my brother's first wedding," Mr. Brand said, referring to Rev. Charles Brand, his brother, the couple's minister. "He practiced on us."

The wedding ceremony was performed on Sept. 30, 1908 at the bride's parents' home which was across the driveway from where the couple now live. "We set up housekeeping in this house, although it was a lot different then. Those were the horse and buggy days, you know, we didn't take honeymoons." The couple were both 21 years old when they married. They celebrated their 91st birthdays this past spring.

Asked how long she had known her husband, Mrs. Brand said, "Oh, I've known him all my life. His parents lived about four miles south of here. We went together five years before we married."

But Mrs. Brand maintained even though they had known each other for a long time, it was no assurance that marriage was going to be perfect. "It's always a gamble, you know," she said. "You never know someone until you've lived with them."

The Brands say the secret of a long married life is simply, "We always got along well, never did fight or anything like that. We had our differences but not quarreling. We worked hard, never went into debt, saved, and were active in the church until our health kept us from going. We've just always got along well."

Even though the Brands lived within a few miles of each other, strangely enough they did not attend schools together. "No we didn't go to the same schools. In those days we just had eight grades in one school. I went to Shipe School and he went to Clark school," Mrs. Brand said. Mrs. Brand also went to Purdue University for one year. She said she had never been to Fort Wayne until her father went that far with her when she boarded a train for Lafayette. The year was 1904.

Mr. Brand not only farmed after he and his wife were married but had helped on the family farm before he branched out on his own. He was the youngest of 11 children but Mrs. Brand said she had a very small family, only a sister and a brother, who have both died. The Brands are the parents of two children, Buford who lives across the driveway from the Brands and operates the family farm. A daughter, Phyllis Hill, lives in Granada Hills, a suburb of Los Angeles, Cal. The Brands have six grandchildren and 13 great-grandchildren. The sixth generation Brand is now working on the family farm, first purchased by Daniel Phillips of Pennsylvania when he came west looking for a place to settle.

"We just hope we can stay together," Mrs. Brand said. "So far we've been lucky, we've had the flu a few times, but nothing really serious. I always dread the winters now. Use too, Orie and the men had to stop their farm work and shovel the roads so we could get out to get groceries."

"The blizzard last winter was bad but I can remember when my daughter walked on top of the snow drifts to school a mile and a quarter away."

"We had telephones then and I could call to check if she made it to school."

"My father was instrumental in getting the first telephone line out this way and I can remember when electricity came in 1938. We use to have to go to Fairfield Center after our mail before rural delivery started."

Mr. Brand said he usually kept about five work horses when he first started farming. "Bought the first tractor in 1927."

"Our first car was a 1916 Oakland, a two seater," Mrs. Brand added. "Of course later we wore out two Fords, a Model A and a Model T."

Hopefully Mr. and Mrs. Brand will get to stay together. They are still "getting along well" after 70 years. They are looking forward to a family dinner and get together on Sept. 30.

LaDean and Mary Alice Dick

50th for Dicks

LaDean and Mary Alice Dick are celebrating their 50th wedding anniversary with a reception 2 p.m. to 4 p.m. Jan. 12 at the Fort Wayne Woman's Club, 402 W. Wayne St., Fort Wayne.

They were married Jan. 4, 1947, at Pleasant Chapel Church near Ashley.

LaDean, a Steuben County native, retired from General Electric, Fort Wayne. Mary Alice taught school for 34 years, working at Flint High School and Fort Wayne Community Schools.

They have five children, Drs. Anne J. Stump and Mary Jo Stine of Indianapolis, Cathy Myers of Zionsville, Ronald Dick of Fort Wayne and Randall Dick of Panama, Fla.; and seven grandchildren.

The wedding will take place Sunday, January 21st at 2:30 p.m. at the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren southwest of Ashley.

Dec. 28, 1961

Marriage vows were exchanged at 2:30 p.m. Sunday, January 21, by Ruth Ann Kanaga and George A. Witt. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kanaga of Ashley and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Witt of Waterloo.

Reverend Ivan Fry performed the double ring ceremony at the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren. The altar was decorated with gladiolus, palms and yellow mums.

A short musicale was presented by Miss Jolynn Reinohl of Corunna. The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina length gown of nylon lace over crystal satin. The scalloped neckline was sprinkled with tiny sequins. The long sleeves came to a point over her hands. A crown of lace and sequins caught the fingertip veil of illusion. The bride carried a bouquet of white and yellow carnations with white satin streamers.

Her only jewelry was a single strand of pearls, a gift of the groom.

Miss Joan Schiffill of Waterloo served as maid of honor. Her princess style dress was a green taffeta. She wore a white fur clip in her hair, and carried a matching white fur mitt decorated with yellow and white carnations. She wore crystal accessories.

Serving as best man was William Kennedy of Waterloo. The ushers were Donald Kanaga of Ashley and Roly Witt of Auburn. All the men in the wedding party wore dark business suits and white boutonnières.

Miss Ellen Skelly of Ashley took care of the guest book.

Serving at the reception, which was in the church immediately following the ceremony, were Mrs. Judy Kanaga of Ashley, Miss Ann Biggerstaff of Waterloo, and Miss Della Mae Benninghoff of Angola.

The bride's mother chose a beige dress with crystal accessories, and the bridegroom's mother chose a green dress with crystal accessories. Both wore corsages of white and yellow carnations.

The bride changed to a beige sheath with crystal accessories as they left for a short wedding trip.

The bride is a graduate of Ashley high school, and the groom graduated from Waterloo high school. Both are employed at Moore Business Forms, Inc., Angola.

The new Mr. and Mrs. Witt are now residing at their home near Ashley.

MISS MARY PAULINE EVANS AND PAUL THOMAS MARRIED

Couple United in Ceremony at Pleasant Chapel Church to Live on Farm near Waterloo

The Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, southwest of Ashley, was the scene of a beautiful pre-spring wedding Sunday, March 16th, uniting in marriage Miss Mary Pauline Evans, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Evans of Elwood, Ind., and Paul Thomas, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carl E. Thomas of Rt. 2, Waterloo.

The double ring ceremony was performed by the Rev. Russell A. Sherman of Garrett, former pastor of the church, before a background of potted palms, potted ferns, gladioli and seven-branch candelabra. The pews were marked with large white bows.

Preceding the ceremony a musicale was presented by Rev. Claud Leslie, present pastor of the church, vocalist, and Mrs. Dale Thomas, sister-in-law of the groom, pianist. Their numbers included "Indian Love Call," "Always," "Because," and "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," and during the ceremony, "The Lord's Prayer." The traditional wedding marches were played.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a bridal gown of nylon tulle and lace. The gown was fashioned with a tulle yoke edged with accordion pleated tulle. The lace bodice was fitted and the long sleeves pointed over the hands. The bouffant skirt of lace and tulle gave a slight pink cast from the underskirt of pink net over white taffeta. The gown had a chapel train. She wore a bonnet of illusion to which was caught a bridal veil of silk illusion. Her arm bouquet was of white roses and ivy with white satin streamers.

The maid of honor, Miss Joanne Thomas, sister of the groom, wore a gown of pink taffeta and tulle. The gown was designed with a short taffeta jacket worn over a strapless formal fashioned with a petal bodice of taffeta and a bouffant nylon net skirt of ballerina length. She wore a large picture hat of matching color. She carried an arm bouquet of pink and blue carnations.

The bridesmaids were Miss Phyllis Legg of Elwood and Miss Eileen Bonner of Huntington. They were attired in dresses styled identically to that of the maid of honor except blue in color. Their arm bouquets were also of carnations.

Serving as ring bearer was four-year old Anna Thomas, niece of the groom, who was attired in a full length sleeveless dress of mint green taffeta fashioned with a very full skirt and covered with net to match. The bodice fitted and buttoned down the back with self-covered buttons, was complimented with a large bertha collar. The pillow, bearing the rings, matched the dress. She wore white gloves and white shoes. Her headpiece was of pink carnations and green ribbon bows to match the dress.

Serving as flower girls were Miss Judith Evans, sister of the bride, and Miss Karen Thomas, niece of the groom. They were attired in dresses identical to that of the ring bearer except of a medium yellow. Their headpieces were of pink carnations and yellow ribbon bows to match the dresses. They also wore white gloves and white shoes.

Dale Thomas, brother of the groom served as best man. The guests were seated by Harold Skelly and Paul Grogg, both of Waterloo.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Evans wore a two-piece suit of navy blue with white blouse and navy accessories. Her corsage was of red roses.

Mrs. Thomas, mother of the groom, was attired in a two-piece black dress, and wore a black hat with black accessories. Her corsage was also of red roses.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception attended by 133 guests, was held in the church basement. The reception tables were covered with linen cloths and centered with a three-tiered cake which was surrounded with sinlax and topped with a miniature bride and groom.

The bride is a graduate of the Wendell L. Willkie high school with the class of 1950 and also graduated from International Business College in Fort Wayne, last year and has since been employed in the offices of the State School in Fort Wayne.

Mr. Thomas is a graduate of the Kendallville high school with the class of 1945, and since has been engaged in farming.

The couple spent a short honeymoon in Michigan and will be at home to their friends on Route 2, Waterloo.

MISS LAURINE PAIRAN BECOMES THE BRIDE OF HAROLD SKELLY JAN. 1

A Beautiful Ceremony in the Pleasant Chapel Church, Southwest of Ashley

The Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, southwest of Ashley, was the scene of New Year's Day at 2:00 p.m., of the pretty candlelight wedding of Miss Laurine E. Pairan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Pairan of southwest of Ashley, and Harold R. Skelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Skelly of south of Ashley. Rev. Russell A. Sherman of 518 South Walsh Street, Garrett, officiated at the double ring ritual in the presence of the Pleasant Chapel congregation and close relatives.

Mrs. Mary Alice Dick of North Manchester, pianist, and Mrs. Dale Thomas, sister of the groom, vocalist, presented the bridal music, their numbers including "Always", "Because", "I Love You Truly", and "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life". The strains of Wagner's "Lohengrin" announced the entrance of the bridal party. During the ceremony Mrs. Dick played softly "Liebestraum", "The Prayer Perfect", and "O Promise Me". At the end of the service Mrs. Thomas sang "The Lord's Prayer".

The couple exchanged vows before an altar decorated with sprigs of evergreen and baskets of gold and white chrysanthemums. In the center was the pulpit topped by a Bible of the groom, and on either side were seven-branch candelabras holding lighted cathedral tapers. The piano was also decorated with evergreen and five lighted tapers. On the left side of the church, opposite the piano, was a large red Christmas cactus.

Miss Belva Getts, cousin of the bride, served as maid of honor, and the groom was attended by his brother, Earl Skelly; Jack Brand and Paul Thomas served as ushers.

The bride was attired in a street length dress of duchess blue satin with fitted bodice and three-quarter length sleeves. She wore a gold color headpiece and black slippers. Her only jewelry was a gold heart-shaped locket centered with a diamond, a gift of the groom. Her white Bible was topped with a bouquet of pink carnations tied with white satin ribbons, which cascaded from the bouquet. The frock worn by Miss Getts was of a lighter blue with a hat to match and she wore a corsage similar to that of the bride. The groom and attendant were both dressed in dark blue business suits with white carnation boutonnières.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pairan chose a medium blue dress with contrasting accessories. The mother of the groom was attired in a black dress with matching accessories. Each had a shoulder corsage of pink carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents with over with a lace cloth and centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, surrounded 100 attending. The table was covered by pieces of ivy, and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Those who assisted with the serving were the Misses Delores Hartman, Mildred

Hanes, Crystal Shippe and the Mesdames Ruth Parr, Jeanne Brand, Iris Beiswanger and Beatrice Pence.

After the reception the happy couple left on a wedding trip through the south, and upon their return will reside on a farm southwest of Ashley.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Skelly are graduates of the Ashley High School with the classes of 1945 and 1947, respectively.

BRAND-STEURY NUPTIAL VOWS RECITED

The Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren near Ashley was the scene of the wedding of Miss Janet Brand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brand of Ashley, and Mr. Robert Steury, son of Mr. and Mrs. Menno Steury of Berne, on Sunday afternoon, June 26. The Rev. Lowell T. Brand, brother of the bride, and the Rev. Ivan Fry, pastor of the Pleasant Chapel church, officiated for the vows before a background of white Fuji mums and gladioli, interspersed with candelabra and palms. An organ prelude was presented by LeDean Dick of Fort Wayne; and immediately preceding the ceremony, nuptial selections were sung by Mrs. Lowell T. Brand of Napoleon, Ohio.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, appeared in a gown of pure imported silk with embroidered motif designs enhancing the material which was made over bridal satin and tulle and flowed into a chapel length train. The bodice was fashioned with a scooped neckline embroidered with seed pearls and iridescent sequins. The back featured a bateau drape of bridal satin at the waistline. A crown of seed pearls and sequins secured her three-tiered veil of illusion. She carried a pearl-covered Bible, which her parents recently brought from Jerusalem, topped with an orchid and a cascade of stephanotis. Her only jewelry was the pearls worn by her mother as a bride.

Mrs. Robert Bowman, of Waterloo, sister of the bride, was matron of honor in a waltz length dress of orchid organza over taffeta. Bridesmaids were Miss Nancy Steury and Miss Lois Steury, sisters of the groom, and Mrs. Bill Reynolds of Berne. Their dresses, in a deeper shade of orchid, were identical to that of the matron of honor. The attendants each wore an orchid picture hat and carried a colonial bouquet of red rosebuds and orchid-edged white carnations.

Connie Crill, three-year old niece of the bride, was flower girl in a short white dress of nylon and lace. She wore a white hat and carried a basket of red rose petals. Mickey Crill was ring-bearer, wearing a white dinner jacket and an orchid-tinted carnation boutonniere.

Roger Habegger of Berne was best man, and guests were seated by Robert Bowman of Waterloo, Robert Reinhard, Palmer Inniger, and Bill Reynolds of Berne. The groom and his attendants were attired in white coats with boutonnieres of orchid-edged white carnations.

Those serving were Mrs. David Rinehart, Hudson; Miss Violet Brand, Ashley; Miss Shirley Weakinger, Decatur; Mrs. Kenneth Welch, LaPorte; Miss Adele Gingrich, Holland, Pennsylvania; Mrs. Rex Dalby, Owosso, Michigan; and Mrs. Norman Stiving, Toledo, O.

The bride's mother wore a pink mauve Thai jacketed dress with blue accessories, while the groom's mother chose a navy dress with matching accessories. Each wore an orchid corsage.

Approximately 240 wedding guests were received at the home of the bride's parents following the ceremony. Mrs. Charles Crill of Fort Wayne, a sister of the bride, and Mrs. Robert Reinhard, sister of the groom, cut the five-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Jack Brand of Auburn served as receptionist.

For traveling the bride selected a teal boucle dress with white accessories and an orchid corsage.

The bride is a graduate of Manchester college and taught business education at Salem Center high school last year, and has accepted a teaching position in the Petroleum high school beginning in September. Following a wedding trip to Colorado Springs, the couple will make their home in Berne.

Miss Joanne Thomas Marries R. Mollica

The marriage of Miss Joanne Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thomas of near Ashley, to Richard Mollica, son of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Mollica of Altoona, Pennsylvania, was solemnized the evening of 10 June in the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren with Rev. Israel Gordon officiating at the double ring ceremony.

Nuptial music was presented, by George Sherwood, organist, and Mrs. Dale Thomas, vocalist.

A waltz-length gown of white satin overlaid with white nylon tulle and Chantilly lace was selected by the bride. The matching bolero with long sleeves complemented it. Her short veil was caught by a matching headband and her white Bible was topped with a white orchid and pink rosebuds.

Mrs. Paul Thomas, sister-in-law of the bride, served as matron of honor and Mrs. Robert Sorensen was bridesmaid. Their gowns of ballerina length were mint green and lavender, respectively, and were of lace and nylon tulle over taffeta. They wore picture hats and carried pink and white carnations.

Attending as best man was Amedeo Mollica, brother of the bridegroom, and guests were seated by Robert Sorensen and Paul Thomas.

Serving at the reception in the church basement, which followed the ceremony, were Evanell Sutherland and Donna King of Ashley and Gloria Mollica and Rose Stout of Altoona.

The newly-weds will reside with the bride's parents until August at which time Mr. Mollica will graduate from Tri-State College.

MARY ALICE BRAND BECOMES THE BRIDE OF LA DEAN B. DICK

In Beautiful Ceremony Performed Saturday Evening at the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren

The Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, Ashley, was the scene last Saturday evening, January 4, of the wedding of Miss Mary Alice Brand, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John H. Brand of Ashley, to Mr. LeDean Bennett Dick, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dick, of near Angola, Ind.

The white dais was banked with ferns, polisetias and baskets of red carnations and white mums, with candelabra at each side, while the pews were marked with white nylon rosettes and streamers.

The musicale preceding the ceremony was presented by Mrs. Dolores Hughes, pianist, and Mr. Claude Leslie, soloist. The numbers included "Salut d'Amour", "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life", "Because", "Prayer Perfect", and "Liebestraum". The bride, carrying a white Bible topped with gardenias and streamers, entered to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March. The double ring ceremony was solemnized by the Reverend Russell Sherman of Garrett. After the exchange of vows, the couple knelt for a prayer of blessing and dedication which was closed with the singing of "The Lord's Prayer" by Mr. Leslie. Mendelssohn's Wedding March was played for the recessional of the wedding party.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attractive in a gown whose tight fitting white satin basque had a sweetheart neckline and long sleeves tapering to points at the wrists. Its full lace skirt flowed into a sweeping train. The finger-tip length veil was of white illusion, falling from a halo bonnet also of white illusion. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the groom, and a bracelet of silver filigree, brought from Greece by her father who recently returned from Europe.

A former college roommate, Miss Myrna Jean Flory, of North Manchester, was her only attendant, and wore a gown with a black taffeta basque fashioned with a yoke and skirt of white illusion. She carried a colonial bouquet of red roses and white mums. Her shoulder length veil fell from a coronet of white roses.

Mr. Jack H. Brand, brother of the bride, served as best man, and the ushers were Mr. Robert Kuckuck of Hudson, cousin of the bride, and Mr. Robert Ferri, of Pleasant Lake, friend of the groom.

Mrs. Brand, mother of the bride, wore a two-piece dress of black crepe with a yoke of black chiffon trimmed in sequins. Mrs. Dick, mother of the groom, was also attired in a dress of black crepe with black accessories. Each wore a corsage of red roses and white mums.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The table was centered with a three-tiered wedding cake, topped with a miniature bride and groom and wreathed with a garland of smilax. Ferns and white tapers completed the table appointments. Miss Marjorie Brand, Miss Jeanne Ford, Miss Joanne Thomas, Mrs. Burdette Parr, Mrs. John Kelmoch, Mrs. Dale Thomas and Mrs. Arden Belawanger assisted in serving the 125 guests which included many out-of-town friends.

For her going away outfit, the bride chose a brown bolero suit with jacket patterned in gold sequins, and white accessories. Her brown tulle cap was veiled in brown net and trimmed with matching sequins. Her corsage was of gardenias.

The bride is a graduate of Ashley High School and Manchester College. For the past three years she has been teaching music and English at Flint High School. The groom, a graduate of Flint High School, is engaged in farming at the present. Upon returning from a short wedding trip, the couple will reside south of Hudson.

MISS MONA FAITH BOYD IS BRIDE IN CHURCH SERVICE

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert
Boyd of Ashley Weds Weldon
Eugene Shaffer of Garrett

In a candlelight ceremony read at 7 o'clock Sunday evening Miss Mona Faith Boyd became the bride of Weldon Eugene Shaffer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph W. Shaffer of 316 South Peters street, Garrett. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Boyd of Ashley.

Rev. Russell Sherman of 520 South Walsh street, Garrett, read the double-ring nuptial vows in the Ashley Pleasant Chapel church under an arch of sweet peas and roses, graced on either side with seven branched candelabra and beauty vases of summer flowers and greenery. The pews were marked with white satin bows.

Preceding the ceremony a 15 minute musicale was presented by Mrs. Harold Skelly, church organist, and Claude Leslie, vocalist, both of Ashley. Selections included "O, Promise Me," "Always," "Because" and "The Lord's Prayer." The traditional wedding marches were used for the processional and recessional.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She chose a gown of white taffeta and lace. The molded bodice featured a deep round neckline styled with a bertha collar. The bouffant skirt ended in a chapel train. Her fingertip veil of illusion was caught to an open-crown bonnet of lace. The bride carried a cascade arrangement of white roses and white satin streamers. She wore a four-strand pearl necklace, a gift from the groom. For "something old" she carried a hanky made and carried by her grandmother, Mrs. Dan Stomm of Waterloo, when she was married 57 years ago.

The maid of honor, Miss Dolores Kemery of Fort Wayne, a niece of the groom, was attired in a blue organdy gown styled with a fitted bodice and deep round neckline encircled with a bertha collar. She wore a hair corsage and carried a bouquet of pink gladioli.

The Misses Berniece and Burdetta Burns of Butler, twin cousins of the bride, were bridesmaids. They were attired in pink organdy gowns styled like that of the maid of honor. Their hair corsages and bouquets were blue gladioli. All three attendants wore rhinestone necklaces, gifts from the bride.

Dixie Ann Northhouse of Corunna, cousin of the bride, acted as flower girl. Her frock was pastel green organdy and her headpiece was a wreath of the same material. She carried a basket of rose petals. Tommy Shaffer of Garrett, nephew of the groom, carried the rings.

Serving as best man was Larry Stomm of Waterloo, cousin of the bride. The guests were seated by Larry Ellis of Fort Wayne and Donald Stomm of Corunna. All gentlemen attendants wore white boutonnieres.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Boyd chose a navy sheer dress with white accessories. The bridegroom's mother also was attired in a navy sheer dress accented with white accessories. Both mothers wore white gardenias.

Guests were received at a reception from 7 until 10 o'clock in the recreation room of the church. The bride's table was covered with a white linen cloth, centered with a three-tiered wedding cake decorated with white and pink icing and topped with a miniature bride and groom. Spring flowers and greenery were the table decorations. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Kanage of Ashley, the bride and groom's Sunday school teachers, served at the reception, assisted by members of both classes.

When the couple left for a short wedding trip to northern Michigan, the bride changed to an orchid gabardine suit with white accessories. She wore white roses. Upon their return the couple will reside with the bride's parents.

The bride was graduated from Ashley high school with the 1951 class. She is employed with the Auburn Bell Telephone Co. The groom attended Garrett high school and he is in the naval reserve. At present he is employed by Hubbard Spool Co., Garrett.

MISS BELVA GETTS, ASHLEY GIRL, WEDS DONALD PERLICH

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Getts Becomes the Bride of Donald L. Perlich of Albion

Announcement was made Monday of the marriage of Miss Belva Getts of Ashley and Donald L. Perlich of Albion. The ceremony was performed Sunday, May 20, in the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren southwest of Ashley.

The Rev. Russell Sherman, a Church of the Brethren minister residing in Garrett, officiated at the 2 p.m. ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Getts of Rt. 1, Ashley. Mr. Perlich is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Perlich, R. 1, Albion. The bride graduated from the Ashley high school in 1948.

Preceding the ceremony a 15 minute musicale was presented by Mrs. Harold Skelly, pianist and Rev. Claude Leslie, vocalist. Selections included "I Love You Truly," "Ah! Sweet Mystery of Life," "Because," "Prayer Perfect," "The Lord's Prayer," and the wedding marches.

The church was decorated with ferns and bouquets of white lilacs and pink gladioli and candelabra holding white cathedral candles.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was attired in a lilac-rose crepe dress trimmed in matching lace with white accessories. She carried a bouquet of pink shaded roses and white baby mums tied with pink and white satin ribbon on a white Bible. She wore a heart necklace, a gift of the groom.

The bridesmaid, Miss Joyce Perkins of Hudson, cousin of the bride, wore a dress of light blue sheer with a gold figure in it and white accessories. She carried a bouquet of pink roses tied with pink ribbon.

Attending the groom as best man was his brother, Wayne Perlich of Albion. The ushers were Harold Skelly of Waterloo, cousin of the bride, and Larry Perlich of Albion, brother of the groom. The men of the wedding party wore light business suits with matching ties and carnation boutonnieres.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Getts chose a black crepe dress with black and white accessories. Mrs. Perlich was attired in an aqua and white sheer dress with black and white accessories. Both wore corsages of shaded pink carnations and white sweet peas tied with silver ribbons.

Following the wedding, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents.

The couple will reside on a farm north of Corunna.

MRS. DAVID RINEHART

Miss Lois Perkins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Perkins of near Hudson, exchanged nuptial vows with David Rinehart, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Rinehart of Ashley on Sunday, August 11, at 2:00 p.m. at the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren.

The Rev. Israel Gorden of Auburn officiated at the double ring ceremony. The altar was decorated with palms, cardelabra and beauty baskets of gladioli. The aisle was carpeted in white and pews were marked with white bows.

Mrs. Maryalice Dick, organist, and Mrs. Iris Thomas of Ashley, soloist, presented the musicale. The bride, given in marriage by her father, chose a white gown of white Chantilly lace over satin styled by a sabrina neckline, trimmed in sequins. The long sleeves came to a point over the hands. The full skirt of lace and panels of nylon net ended as a floor length gown. The small crown of lace and sequins caught the fingertip veil of illusion. The bride carried an orchid on a white Bible with white satin streamers and small mums.

Mrs. Joyce Oberlin of Angola, sister of the bride, attended as matron of honor. She wore a gown of pink taffeta, princess style, with a bow at the back. She carried a bouquet of pink and white gladioli with aqua streamers. Mrs. Phyllis Parker of Pleasant Lake, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Shirley Krugler of Angola, were bridesmaids.

They wore identical gowns of aqua taffeta, princess style, with bows at the back, and carried pink and white gladioli with white streamers. The attendants wore matching picture hats and mitts trimmed in sequins.

Merry Nelson of Homer, Mich., cousin of the bride, was the flower girl. She wore a white nylon dress and a crown of pink and white roses and carried a basket of pink rose petals.

Nickie Stoy of Ashley, was attired in a navy blue suit and carried the rings on a white satin pillow.

The groom was attended by his brother, Arthur, of Ashley, as best man. The ushers were Eldon Skelly of Ashley, and Robert Krugler of Angola. All wore navy blue suits and white boutonnieres.

The bride's mother chose a charcoal gray dress with black and white accessories.

The groom's mother wore a blue dress with black and white accessories. Both wore corsages of pink roses.

The reception for 200 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. Serving the guests were Mrs. Annette Chrisman of Ashley, Mrs. Janice Gaetz of Ashley, Miss Pat Walker of Waterloo and Miss Janet Brand of Ashley.

Sutherland-Shenk Marriage Vows Heard

Miss Evenell Ann Sutherland of Ashley, became the bride of Argyi Lee Shenk recently at the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, South-west of Ashley, Indiana.

The double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Russell Sherman and Rev. Glenn Mulligan, both of Garrett, before the altar, which was decorated with palms, candlebras, beauty vases filled with pink and white gladiolas and using the open Bible as a background. White satin bows centered with Simlex marked the pews of the Church.

Mr. George Sherwood of Auburn, organist, and Mrs. Lris Thomas, vocalist, South-west of Ashley, presented the wedding musicale.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jay Sutherland of near Ashley and the bridegroom, Argyi Lee Shenk, is the son of Mrs. Agnes Shenk of near Garrett.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a floor length gown of Chantilly lace over bridal satin, featuring a fitted bodice, long sleeves coming to points over the wrist, peterpan collar and a lace tunic. Her veil of silk illusion edged with lace was held in place by a satin tiara studded with tear drop pearls. Her only jewelry was a matching strand of pearls, a gift of the groom. She carried a cascade arrangement of sweetheart roses centered with a white orchid, which was later removed and worn as a corsage on her traveling suit.

Miss Darlene Sutherland, sister of the bride, served as maid of honor and was attired in a floor length gown of ice blue nylon net over taffeta with a large, off-the-shoulder collar and matching plateau hat. She wore a rhinestone necklace, a gift of the bride and carried a cascade arrangement of pink gladiolas.

Miss Patty Ramsey of Fort Wayne, friend of the bride, acted as bridesmaid and was attired in yellow nylon net over taffeta fashioned similarly to that of the maid of honor. Her only jewelry was a rhinestone necklace, a gift of the bride, and a cascade arrangement of blue gladiolas formed the bouquet she carried.

All the gowns of the wedding party were fashioned by the bride's mother.

Serving as best man and groomsmen were Mr. Earl Schlotterback, of Garrett and Mr. Marion Scheurich, of Garrett, friends of the groom.

Guests were seated by Billy Reineohl, of Garrett, brother of the bride and Billy Shenk, South-west of Garrett, nephew of the groom.

Miss Ruth Ann Shenk, of La Otto, niece of the groom, cared for the Bride's book and Miss Karen Shenk, of Garrett, also niece of the groom, cared for the gifts.

Serving at the reception table were Mrs. Wilbur Brand, cousin of the bride, who cut and served the five-tiered wedding cake, which she baked and decorated, and Mrs. Steve Brado, of Cleveland, Ohio, sister of the groom, who poured. Also serving were Mrs. Charles Oberlin of Angola, Mrs. Richard Molica of Fort Wayne, Miss JoAnne LaRowe, Miss Ilene Balliett, Miss Gloria Ferguson and Miss Elenor Mavis all of Auburn. There were 250 guests present.

Both the mother of the bride and the mother of the groom heart roses matching the bride's bouquet. The men of the bridal party wore white carnation boutonnières with business suits.

For traveling, the bride chose a pink linen suit with white and brown accessories and wore the white orchid from her bridal bouquet.

After a week's honeymoon at Niagara Falls and in Canada, they returned to their apartment in Garrett, and now are residing near Garrett on their newly purchased farm.

The bride graduated from Ashley High School with the class of 1952 and is employed in the County Extension Office at the Auburn Court House.

The groom graduated from the Avilla High School with the class of 47, served 2 years in the armed services, and now is engaged in farming.

Miss Anna Margaret Thomas Weds

MRS. LEALON MAYNARD STOY, JR.

Before an altar graced with beauty vases of white gladioli and mums with greenery, and 7-branch candelabra holding white lighted tapers, Miss Anna Margaret Thomas of Rt. 1, Ashley, and Lealon Maynard Stoy, Jr. of Rt. 1, Waterloo, exchanged marriage vows at 2:30 o'clock Sunday, October 16th. The double ring ceremony was solemnized in the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, Rt. 1, Ashley, by the Rev. Lester E. Fike, pastor.

Miss Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Dale Thomas of Rt. 1, Ashley, was given in marriage by her father. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lealon M. Stoy, Sr. of Pleasant Lake, formerly of Ashley.

Miss Janet E. Skelly of Waterloo, cousin of the bride, attended the guest book.

A 30-minute musicale preceding the service was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Darrell E. Hughes of Hudson at the organ, and Mrs. Ivan Fry of Fort Wayne as vocalist. Selections played by Mrs. Hughes were "If Thou art Near" by Bach; "Andante Cantabile" by Tschai-kowsky; "Nuptial Song" by Dubois; "The Day of Golden Promise" by Hamblen; "Kamennoi Ostrow" by Rubinstein, and "O Perfect Love" by Barnby. For the processional she used "Arioso" by Handel and for the Recessional "Now Thank We all Our God" by Mendelssohn. The postlude was "Liebestraum" by List.

Mrs. Fry sang "The Marriage Psalm" taken from the 128th Psalm with music by John G. Barr; "Jesu, Joy of Man's Desiring" by Bach; "O Perfect Love" by Burleigh and during the ceremony she sang the "Wedding Prayer" by Fern Dunlap as the couple knelt before the altar.

Bride's Wedding Attire

Miss Thomas walked down a white carpeted aisle, strewn with flower petals, past pews decorated with white satin bows. Her gown was an original, created by Mrs. Jerry Myers of Waterloo, fashioned in white re-embroidered bridal lace. The fitted bodice featured a rounded neckline trimmed with a tiny scalloped lace ruffle. There were tiny covered buttons down the back and also repeated on the long tapered lace sleeves. The full lace tiered skirt fell to a chapel length train in back with a front panel of lace edged at the hem with scalloped lace, which was also on the edge of each tier of lace in back.

The gown was completed with a shower of sequins and seed pearls from the neckline to the hem. The bouffant, waist length five-tiered veil was caught to an open crown of white lace with scalloped lace edging, highlighted by seed pearls and sequins. Tiny lace flowers were scattered over the veil and the outer tier was finished with an edge of scalloped lace. She wore white satin slippers, and carried a lace covered white Bible topped with two phalaenopsis white orchids and white streamers.

Sister Is Maid-of-Honor

Miss Karen R. Thomas of Ashley, sister of the bride, was the maid-of-honor, while Miss Martha Smith of Ann Arbor, Michigan, was bridesmaid and Miss Carla J. Thomas, another sister of the bride, was junior bridesmaid. All gowns were of re-embroidered lavender lace over matching lavender satin.

The floor-length satin gowns were sleeveless with skirts of side front and back dart pleats. The lace over gown featured a cut-away front with short sleeves and satin belt and tiny covered satin buttons down the back. White gloves, shoes of matching lavender and lavender satin headpieces with lace appliques on the veils completed their ensembles. They carried cascade arrangements of elegance carnations.

The flower girl was Miss Melody R. Bailey of Pleasant Lake, niece of the groom. She wore a floor length gown of all white nylon sheer organdy which featured puffed sleeves and a very full skirt. Tiny lavender appliques trimmed the gown. Her headpiece was a lavender lace bow, and she carried a white basket filled with elegance lavender carnations.

Uncle Serves as Best Man

Paul Stoy of Pleasant Lake, uncle of the groom, served as best man. Groomsman was Robert Stoy of Pleasant Lake, brother of the groom. James R. Reinohl of North Manchester, and William Campbell of Upland, friends of the groom, served as ushers. Paul E. Thomas, Jr., and Marvin L. Skelly, cousins of the bride, of Waterloo, served as candle lighters. All the men of the wedding party, as well as the fathers of the bride and groom, wore black tuxedos with white carnation boutonniere.

Mothers' Attire

Mrs. Thomas was attired in a rose-beige two-piece dress with matching jacket of taffeta with re-embroidered nylon lace overlay. Her accessories were of antique brown. The groom's mother appeared in a beige dress of bonded orlon-metallic with a gently draped collar. Both mothers wore corsages of white catteleya orchids. The grandmothers, Mrs. Rebah Skelly, Ashley, Mrs. Carl B. Thomas, Rt. 2, Waterloo, and Mrs. Frank Stoy, Ashley, all wore corsages of white carnations and white roses.

Reception Held in Ashley

Immediately following the marriage service a reception in honor of the couple was held in the Eastern Star hall in Ashley. The cake consisted of two four-tiered cakes joined together with a bridge on which was a miniature bride and groom overlooking a miniature white chapel. Each cake was topped with white satin bells, and surrounded at the bottom with greenery. The cake was graced on either side by triple candelabra and white tapers.

Assisting at the serving table were Mrs. Gene Bailey of Pleasant Lake, Mrs. Carol Schaffer of Fort Wayne, and Mrs. Don Farrington of Ashley. Assisting at the gift table were Mrs. Paul E. Thomas, Sr. and Miss Janet E. Skelly of Waterloo and Mrs. Lester E. Fike of Ashley.

For her going away outfit, the new Mrs. Stoy chose a two-piece suit of mint-green wool complimented with a crocheted blouse to match, and wore black patent accessories. Her corsage was the two phalaenopsis white orchids which had topped her Bible for the marriage service. After a short honeymoon to Kentucky the couple are at home in Fort Wayne at 657 Archer avenue.

The bride is a graduate of Ashley High School and is employed at the Lincoln National Life Insurance Company in Fort Wayne. The groom, also a graduate of Ashley High School, recently completed two years service with the United States Army in Germany, and is now employed with the National Life and Accident Insurance Company in Fort Wayne.

MARCH 28, 1982 Evening
Francis McMaster Star

Francis A. McMaster, 80, 1529 Urban Ave., Auburn, died Thursday at 8:15 a.m. in Betz Nursing Home.

Mr. McMaster retired from Auburn's Dana Corporation in 1964.

He was born in Duluth, Minn. on Sept. 16, 1901. His parents were George and Minnie (Shultz) McMaster.

He married Lillie M. Smithard on April 5, 1931 in Brandon, Manitoba, Canada. His wife survives.

Also surviving are a daughter, Joan Milam of Kendallville; a son, Howard, Reno, Nev.; three brothers, Henry, Thonotosassa, Fla.; Arthur, Sacramento, Calif.; and Royal, Winnipeg, Manitoba; two sisters, Mrs. Lily Brown, British Columbia and Mrs. Gertie Brown, Ontario; three grandchildren; one step-granddaughter and one step-greatgrandson.

Mr. McMaster was a member of Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, Ashley, and also attended Auburn Church of the Brethren. He was a member of the Dana Quarter-Century Club, a past president of the RWCVAW Area III Retirees Club, and a member of the Waterloo Masonic Lodge.

Services will be Monday at 2 p.m. in Feller Funeral Home, Waterloo. Rev. Brent Driver, pastor of Auburn Church of the Brethren, will officiate. Burial will be in Fairfield Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home from 2-5 and 7-9 p.m. Sunday. A Masonic memorial service will be held at 8 p.m. Sunday. Memorials to the Heart Fund are preferred.

Kenneth Guy Hartman, eldest son of Wm. and Ethel Hartman was born near Ashley, Ind., May 5, 1897, and after suffering several hours due to an injury from a tractor passed away May 11, 1938, age 41 years and six days.

He was married to Miss Bertha Crossley Oct. 28, 1919, and to this union were born two children, June and Robert. Nearly all the life of the deceased had been spent on farms in DeKalb and Steuben counties. The last ten years had been spent on the W. I. Lower farm west of Pleasant lake, near Ashley. He had been a hard worker and a good tenant, ten years passing without an argument or cross word between him and the owner of the farm. He was a congenial man, he made many friends everywhere he went, he had been a loving husband with the wife and children depending heavily upon him. Uncomplainingly, at times under the doctor's care, he had gone on with his work.

A little over a year ago, upon the profession of his faith in Christ as his personal saviour, he was baptized and became a member of the Baptist church of Pleasant lake at the same time his family came into its membership.

He leaves to mourn his going, his beloved wife, daughter, June, son, Robert, his mother and three brothers, Raymond, Lester and Verl. A twin sister preceded him in infancy and his father also preceded him in death Jan. 16, 1937. Besides the immediate family he leaves many other relatives and a host of friends.

At about 6 years of age, she, with her parents, Alexander and Matilda McGlish, and one sister moved to DeKalb County where she spent most of the rest of her life.

On December 24, 1893 she and Samuel C. Perkins were united in marriage. To this couple were born 9 children. Three daughters and her husband preceded her in death.

She was baptized and became a member of the Church of the Brethren in September 1907, and has been a faithful member for sixty-one years. She and her husband, who passed on December 5, 1956, were among the earliest workers in the Pleasant Chapel church; in it's beginning in 1912 and at the time of organization in 1920. The couple served the church as deacon and deaconess, and attended regularly as long as health permitted.

Surviving are her six living children, Mrs. Bessie A. Miller and Mrs. Rena Hanes of Rt. 2, Wolcottville; Mrs. Ruth V. Stackhouse of Rt. 1, Corunna; Russell C. of Rt. 1, Kendallville; Clarence of Garrett; and Ford M. of Rt. 1, Hudson. Also she leaves 33 grandchildren, 101 great-grandchildren, and 4 great, great-grandchildren, as well as many other relatives and friends.

MRS. EFFIE KANAGE
DIES AT DAUGHTER'S HOME NEAR ASHLEY

Passed Away Wednesday Afternoon Following a Month's Illness. Services to Be Held Saturday P.M.

Mrs. Effie Slaybaugh Kanage, age 72 years, passed away Wednesday afternoon at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Byron Gramling, northeast of Ashley. Death resulted from a heart condition. She had been critically ill for five weeks.

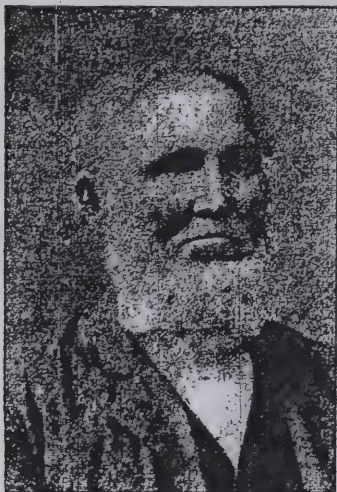

Mrs. Kanage, a lifelong resident of this community, was born March 29, 1877, and had lived for 41 years at her home southwest of Ashley where she moved after her marriage to Samuel LeRoy Kanage, March 11, 1909. Her husband preceded her in death Nov. 20, 1930.

She was a member of the Hudson United Brethren Church and took an active part in the work of the church. She was treasurer for 25 years of the National Women's Missionary Association, including the Province of Ontario, Canada. She was also a member of the Progressive Social Club.

The body was brought to the Kistler Funeral Home where friends may call until 1:00 p.m. Saturday, when it will be taken to the Hudson United Brethren Church, where funeral services will be held at 2:00 p.m., the Rev. F. F. DeGroot, Presiding Elder of the North Ohio Conference, officiating, assisted by the Rev. Donald L. Baney, pastor of the church. Burial will be made in Circle cemetery.

Surviving are a son, Ralph Kanage and a daughter, Mrs. Ruth Gramling, both of near Ashley, and six grandchildren.

Ephraim Shipe, was born in Westmoreland county, Pa. March 31, 1823, and departed this life December 27, 1905, at his home in Fairfield township, DeKalb county, Indiana, aged 82 years, 8 months, and 27 days. In the fall of 1834, Mr. Shipe moved with his parents from to Holmes county Ohio. In 1847 he came to Indiana, and in 1848 purchased the tract of land upon which he lived the remainder of his years. In his youth, because of the ill health of his father, he was obliged to assist in maintaining the family. When he became 21 years of age he began life for himself by learning the carpenter's trade, attending school four month's during the winter season, which was the only educational advantages he ever enjoyed. Shortly after settling in Indiana his father died, leaving the burden of supporting the mother and children entirely upon him. But by dint of hard labor and patient perseverance, he paid for his home. Prosperity attended his efforts so that he enjoyed peace and plenty in his old age. On October 6, 1850, he was united in marriage with Sarah Kriegbaum. To this union were born seven children, three of whom are living, John, David and Leonard. The wife and mother died July 5, 1860. January 24, 1861 Mr. Shipe was again married, this time to Elizabeth Kogin, to which union were born six children.

Final Rites

Final rites were conducted at the Pleasant Chapel Church in Ashley at 2 p.m. Saturday for Carl High, 69, longtime resident of the Corunna community, who died Aug. 4 in McCray Hospital. Rev. Lester Fike officiated and burial was in Fairfield Center Cemetery. Pallbearers were Arthur, Robert and Kenneth Mapes, Tom and William High and Everett Liens. Hite Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.

ALBERT REIN- OEHL DEAD

Passed Away at Chicago Junction, Ohio, Thursday Morning.

ENGINEER ON THE B. & O.

Was a former Fairfield Township Boy and will be Buried There.

In the prime of life, death cometh, is aptly illustrated in the life of Albert Reinoehl who passed away at his home in Chicago Junction, Ohio, Thursday morning aged 39 years.

Six years ago he was ill with typhoid fever and inflammation of the stomach and from the latter originated a cancer for which there was no help. He spent about three weeks in a hospital at Cleveland returning to his home less than a week ago to die for they told him that could be the only possible outcome. When at Cleveland he sent for his brother, Charles, of near Ashley, who went to his bedside remaining until death came.

The deceased was the son of Peter Reinoehl, born in Fairfield township, where he lived until thirteen years ago he entered the employ of the B & O. as a fireman later promoted to an engineer.

He was married to Miss Ada McClish and to this union were born five girls, the eldest now sixteen and the youngest a pair of twin girls ten months. He also leaves an aged father, six brothers, David, of Freeport, Mich., John, of St. Joe, Charles, Frank, Melvin and Sylvanus of near the old home, four sisters, Mrs. W. H. McGiffin, Mrs. Jacob Perkins, Mrs. Emma Coe and Mrs. Maude Snyder.

Of this large family of children, twelve in all, he is the second to pass away, the other a sister, dying when two years old.

The remains will be brought to Garrett today and the funeral will be held at Fairfield Center tomorrow (Friday) at 2 o'clock. Interment in Fairfield Cemetery.

O B I T U A R Y

John T. Smith was born in Putnam County, Ohio on November 7, 1873 to Daniel B. and Susannah (Myers) Smith; and departed this life at the DeKalb Memorial Hospital in Auburn, Indiana on September 9, 1968 at the age of 94 years, 10 months, and 2 days, following a short illness.

On January 13, 1895 he was united in marriage to Ada Della Haynes, who departed this life October 8, 1942. To this union were born 3 children, Mrs. Alvadah Ober of near Ashley, Mrs. Ocie Hamman of R R #1 Corunna, with whom he resided, and Mervin Smith of Columbus, Ohio.

On January 6, 1943 he was united in marriage to Lydia Dell Sherman, who departed this life November 4, 1952.

Mr. Smith was a retired farmer. He united with the Mennonite church, and attended services at the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren.

Eight brothers and one sister preceeded him in death. Surviving beside the above-named children are 3 step-daughters; Mrs. Willard Schweitzer of R R #1, Hudson, Indiana, Mrs. Dorothy Kitchen and Mrs. Hazel Playter, both residing in California. Also surviving are two brothers, Daniel Smith of Kendallville, Alvin Smith of Corunna, one sister Mrs. Elfa Grate of Rome City; and two grandchildren, eight great-grandchildren, and two great-great-grandchildren, and a host of other relatives and friends.

Ashley Paper 3 — March 4, 1938
Obituary

Daniel Stomm was born in Fairfield township May 20, 1862, and departed this life on February 14, 1938, at the age of 75 years, 8 months and 14 days.

Mr. Stomm enjoyed very good health most of his life time but became seriously ill about two weeks before his death. On February 7th he was taken to St. Joseph's hospital at Fort Wayne, although he expressed a willingness to remain at home and await the call of the Messenger of Death, so that he could be with loved ones in the spirit world.

In 1886 he was united in marriage to Nancy Urey, who was taken away by death five years later. In 1894 he married Mary Burger, who preceded him in death October 26, 1934. Two children, Roy and Voyd were born to him by his first marriage, Roy having died in 1916. He had three children by his last marriage, Ralph Stomm, at home; Mrs. Ruth Boyd, of Fairfield township; and Mrs. Emma Burn, of Butler. Besides these, four sisters and two brothers survive, Mrs. Elizabeth Urey, of Ashley; Moses Stomm, of near Ashley; William Stomm, of Fairfield Center; Mrs. Mary Goodrich, of Ashley; Mrs. George Schweitzer, of Ashley; Mrs. Frank Leas, both of Hudson, Ind. There are also fourteen grandchildren.

When Mr. Stomm left his parental home he bought forty acres of land which is a part of the 140 acre homestead. In 1916 he built one of the finest rural homes in DeKalb county, which is a symbol of the industry and business ability so outstanding in his life.

In infancy his parents took him to the Reformed church, one mile south of Hudson and consecrated him to the Lord. In 1890 he and his first wife united with the Progressive church of the Brethren. His faith in God and loyalty to his family made him an esteemed father and respected citizen.

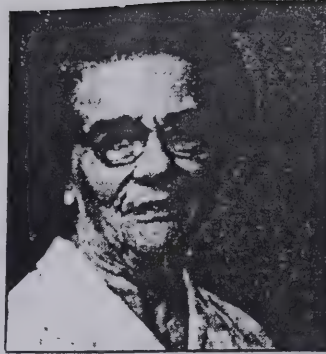

Father's spirit now is resting,
All his work on earth is done;
He was waiting for the summons.
And the setting of the sun.

Softly angels gathered round him,
At the closing of the day,
And they took his weary spirit,
From its earthly house of clay.

He was waiting for the summons
From a life of toil and care,
To be with his dear companions,
Waiting for him over there.

Though the earthly home seems lonely,
And fond hearts are filled with pain,
What has been our loss and sorrow,
Has been his eternal gain.

Now he's with his dear companions,
Free from sorrow, pain and care,
Long to meet their own dear children,
In their mansion over there.

PNEUMONIA IS FATAL TO L. D.
 KURTZ, AGED 69

Was Taken Ill With Disease
 One Week Ago; Was Father of Nine Sons, All Living

Lorenzo D. Kurtz, aged 69 years, native of Ohio and resident of this city the past 11 years, died today at noon at the home of his son, Cecil Kurtz, Richmond street. Death was due to pneumonia, with which he was taken ill one week ago. Prior to his recent illness he had been in gradually falling health but not until the last few days had his condition been regarded as critical.

Mr. Kurtz was born March 22, 1857, in Stark county, Ohio. He grew to manhood near the home of his nativity and the greater part of his life was spent in that locality. November 20, 1881, he was first married to Louise M. Kratzer and four sons were born to the union. The wife died in 1890, and March 27, 1895, he was united in marriage, in Ohio, to Zoe Miller, who preceded him in death two years ago last March. Five sons were born to this union, the decedent being survived by the nine sons.

While a resident of Ohio Mr. Kurtz engaged in farming and 25 years ago the family moved to Indiana, locating near Ashley. They resided there 14 years and 11 years ago moved to this city which had since been their home. Shortly after the family moved to Kendallville the local golf club was organized. Mr. Kurtz was employed to work and prepare the grounds of the course and much credit for the splendid condition and beauty of the course today is due the decedent, who took a keen interest in the development of the course. He maintained a host of friends in the community and was held in the highest regard by all. Mr. Kurtz was a member of the Church of the Brethren, near Ashley.

Surviving relatives include the nine sons, Edward, of Fostoria, O.; Newton, Columbus, O.; Fred, of Burkett; Doris, of South Milford; George, Quay, Cecil, Gale and Paul, of this city. One half-brother, John Kurtz, of near Warsaw, and a half-sister, Mrs. Maggie Walters, of Claypool, together with 14 grandchildren, also survive.

Funeral services will probably be held Saturday, definite arrangements having not been completed today.

PAY LAST RESPECTS TO DAVID REINOEHL

CUSTER, Aug. 23.—Funeral services for David S. Reinoehl, who passed away at his home in Eden Saturday afternoon, were held Tuesday afternoon at the Sugar Ridge church of the Brethren.

Rev. J. S. DeJean chose as his subject, "Take ye heed, watch and pray, for ye know not when the time is," spoke words of comfort to the family and told of the well chosen life lived by Mr. Reinoehl. He said in part, "Life is a pilgrimage. To live a good life is important not only for the life lived here and for the influence left, but for the life we may take with us."

A male quartet, composed of Dallas and Everett Lehman, Holly Wilson and Orvan Saxton, sang, "My Faith Looks Up to Thee," "City Four Square," and "Rock of Ages."

A mass of floral tributes expressed the sympathy felt by the group of persons throughout the community. The body was carried to its final resting place in Riverside cemetery by neighbors and friends consisting of Mort Morrell, Allie Saxton, Atwood Griswold, Robert Wittbecker, Alva Kirkman and Ed Blocher.

David Reinoehl was born July 11, 1868, in DeKalb county, Ind. He grew to boyhood in Indiana and when a young man attended Angold college, teaching for ten years. After moving to Michigan, 28 years ago, Mr. Reinoehl taught at the Bennett and Martin schools near Freesoll, but was forced to give up this work because of deafness.

On Dec. 25, 1892 he was united in marriage to Anna Palmer, who survives. To this union four children were born, Paul Eldon and Arthur Ellsworth, who died in infancy and Weldon Reinoehl of Birmingham and John Reinoehl of Eden. He is also survived by five grandchildren, John Catherine, June, David and Susan Reinoehl, five brothers, John and Charles of Ashley, Ind., Frank of LaOtto, Ind., Melvin of Bristol, Ind., and Sylvanus of Three Rivers, Mich., and four sisters, Mrs. Emma Coe of Cadillac, Mrs. Mary McGiffin of Kendalville, Ind., Mrs. Maude Snyder of Helmar, Ind., and Mrs. Cora Perkins of Hudson, Ind.

Mr. Reinoehl became ill in January and five weeks ago was taken to University hospital, Ann Arbor, returning to his home here a week ago where death occurred.

Those who came from away to attend the funeral were Mr. and Mrs. Weldon Reinoehl, June, David and Sue of Birmingham, Mrs. Mary McGiffin, Miss Vida McGiffin and Mr. and Mrs. John McGiffin and two children of Kendalville, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Otis Coe and Mr. and Mrs. Russell Coe of Cadillac, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Perkins, Daisy Parlan, Mrs. John Getts, George and Clarence Reinoehl, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Monroe of Hudson, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. John Reinoehl, Mr. and Mrs. Willis Reinoehl, Harold Reinoehl, Amos Palmer, Charles Reinoehl of Ashley, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Sylvanus Reinoehl, Willard Reinoehl of Schoolcraft, Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Reinoehl and family of Bristol, Ind., Mr. and Mrs. Ed Palmer of Corunna, Ind., and Frank Reinoehl of LaOtto, Ind.

LIFE OF MRS. DANIEL STOMM WHO DIED AT AGE 66 YEARS

Mary Margaret Stomm, daughter of Joseph and Emma Burger of Owen county, Indiana, was born Oct. 19, 1868, and departed this life Oct. 25, 1934, at her home in Fairfield township, aged 66 years and 6 days.

On Oct. 10, 1894 she was married to Daniel Stomm of DeKalb county. To this union three children were born. Mr. Stomm had two children by a former marriage, Roy and Voyd, whose mother died in 1891. Roy also departed this life in 1916.

Very early in life she united with the Church of the Brethren in which faith she died. She was a faithful companion, laboring early and late in the work of the home. Her great mother heart showed the same concern for her stepsons who were reared in the home as for her own offspring. She took a great interest not only in her home but in the entire community, helping the sick and needy.

Her parents, one stepson, Roy Stomm and one grandson, Austin Stomm, preceded her in death. She leaves to mourn her departure one stepson, Voyd Stomm of Waterloo; a son, Ralph Stomm, residing at the home; two daughters, Mrs. Ruth Boyd of Auburn and Mrs. Emma Burns of Butler; two brothers, Wm. Burger of Coal City, Ind., and Mart Burger of Bremen, Ind.; one sister, Mrs. Alice Trask of Pasadena, Calif., one half sister, Catherine Levengood of Sugar Creek, Ohio, and thirteen grandchildren and a host of neighbors and friends.

Sad death came calling at our door,
And took a treasure for his store,
Yes, took the one we loved so dear,
The one who filled our home with cheer.

In every place in every room,
Instead of joy we feel the gloom,
A place is vacant in our home,
Together we no more can room.

Altho' her form from us departs,
Her spirit lingers in our hearts,
Until upon that golden shore,
We all shall meet to part no more.

Skelly, Ray, son of David and Margaret Skelly, was born near Ashley, Ind., Jan. 1, 1891, and died Feb. 6, 1962. He became a member of the Pleasant Chapel church in July 1928. Surviving are his wife, Rebah Reed Skelly, to whom he was married on May 11, 1912, two sons, one daughter, two brothers, and eighteen grandchildren. The funeral service was conducted at Pleasant Chapel by Brethren Ivan Fry and Israel Gorden. —Marjorie Reinoehl, Ashley, Ind.

DORIS MARIE SKELLY

Obituary

Doris Marie Skelly, eldest daughter of Ray and Rebah Reed Skelly was born August 20, 1919, and went to her eternal rest January 10, 1939, aged nineteen years, four months and twenty-one days.

Because of her sunny disposition, few people ever suspected that Doris had labored under the handicap of poor health for many years. This same cheerfulness and patience she maintained even during her final illness. During the latter part of the summer she was confined to the hospital for a period of two weeks, and was confined to her bed at home for the following four months until her departure.

Her entire lifetime was spent in the home where she was born, and she had endeared herself not only to her immediately family but in the hearts of all who had the privilege of knowing her. Her interests were always unselfish. In school, although hindered by frequent illness, she was a careful and diligent pupil, and was graduated from the Ashley High School as the Valedictorian of the class of 1938.

Although interested in many things, Doris' chief delight was to participate in her church activities. She took the Lord as her personal Savior and Guide, and was baptized into the Church of the Brethren on November 11, 1933.

For four years preceding her final illness she had served as a very efficient Sunday School secretary. Her whole being radiated the joy of an indwelling "peace which passeth understanding."

Doris has gone to join two infant brothers and a lovely little four-year-old sister, Gladys, who preceded her to the Glory Land.

In taking her departure, she leaves, to join her at some future time, two brothers, Earl, of near Waterloo, Harold, at home; one sister, Iris, at home; her parents, and her paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. David Skelly, and besides these there remain a host of other relatives and friends.

A lover of all things beautiful, Doris especially cherished all suggestions for purer, holier living. "So live that when thy summons comes to join that innumerable host which takes its way into the silent halls of death, thou go not like the quarry slave, scourged to his dungeon. But with an unfaltering trust, like on who wraps the garments of his couch about him and lies down to pleasant dreams."

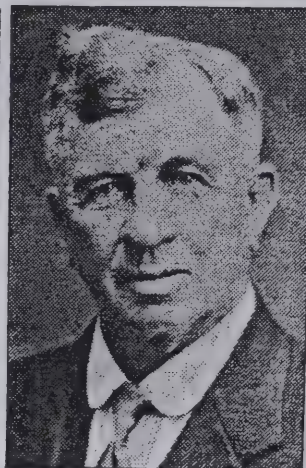

Funeral services were held Saturday afternoon, January 14, at the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, with the Rev. Russel A. Sherman, pastor of the church, officiating. Burial was made in the family lot in the Fairfield Center cemetery.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to thank the neighbors and friends who so kindly assisted in any way during the sickness and after the death of our dear daughter and sister.

The Skelly Family

GLADYS ALBERTA SKELLY

Ashley Hudson Obituary Times MARCH 6, 1936

Gladys Alberta Skelly, daughter of Ray and Rebah Skelly, was born at the Skelly home in Smithfield Township, DeKalb County, Indiana on January 20, 1932. She went to be with Jesus at 2 o'clock on the morning of February 24, 1936. She was aged 4 years, 1 month and 4 days.

Two infant brothers preceded her to the "Happy Home". There remains to mourn the loss the parents, two brothers and two sisters, Earl, Doris, Iris, and Harold; grandmother and grandfather Skelly and a great many other relatives and friends.

Gladys was a beautiful little soul. She attended Sunday School and church regularly with her family and took a special interest in all the services. She liked the music most of all. The first song she learned began with the beautiful thought "Do you seek for a friend who is always the same? Who will answer your sigh and your call? There is just such a friend, I will tell you H's name It is Jesus the Best Friend of all". Since the evangelistic meetings last fall she frequently sang, "If Your Heart Keeps Right Every cloud will wear a rainbow if your heart keeps right."

Her sunny smile and cheery disposition will be missed, but the beautiful memories of her will always remain in the hearts of those who knew and loved her.

Funeral services were held at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon at the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren in Fairfield Township with Rev. Leo H. Miller of Fort Wayne officiating. Burial was made in the family lot in the Fairfield cemetery.

Go to thy rest, fair child!

Go to thy dreamless bed,
While yet so gentle, unbedied,
With blessings on thy head.

Before thy heart had learned
In waywardness to stray,
Before thy feet had ever turned
The dark and downward way.

Ere sin had seared the breast,
Or sorrow woke the tear;
Rise to thy throne of changeless rest,
In yon celestial sphere!

Because thy smile was fair,
Thy lip and eye so bright,
Because thy loving cradle-care
Was such a dear delight.

Shall love with weak embrace,
Thy upward wing detain?
No! gentle angel, seek thy place
Amid the cherub train.

Silberg, Walter M., was born July 21, 1897, and died Feb. 3, 1962. He became a member of the Pleasant Chapel church in 1957. Surviving are his wife, Helen Oberlin Silberg, two daughters, one son, and seven grandchildren. The funeral service was conducted at Pleasant Chapel by Bro. Ivan Fry. — Marjorie Reinoehl, Ashley, Ind.

A child ways sometimes shows ... Far more than words can say ... And Corallen's expressions were ... The sweetest of the day ... If you should live beyond my life ... I hope you will not grieve ... I hope you will not suffer, dear ... Because I had to leave ... I would not want the world to be ... A lonely place for you ... And I would never want to keep ... Your dreams from coming true ... For you have always meant so much ... Of all that life can be ... And your devotion dear, has been ... The sweetest ever to me ... I know there must be other joys ... For you to hold and share ... And there are those who really need your loving care ... If I should leave you, dear, I hope ... Your skies will all be blue ... And that you have more happiness ... Than I have given you. Thurs Jan 20, 1949

LIFE OF SAMUEL LEROY KANAGA 54 YEARS OF AGE

Samuel LeRoy Kanaga, son of Samuel and Chole Kanaga, was born in Fairfield township, DeKalb county, Indiana, November 20, 1876, and departed this life November 20, 1930, aged 54 years. He was one of a family of six children consisting of one brother, two sisters and two half-sisters. One sister, Mrs. Minerva Scattergood, and one half-sister, Mrs. Maude Weimer, preceded him in death.

He was a lifelong resident in the community and on the farm where he was born. He was bereft of a father's care and guidance at the age of seven. The mother kept her little family together in the farm home. Her years of life were rounded out in 1908.

On March 11, 1909, he was united in marriage with Effie Slaybaugh. To them were born two children: Ruth, now eighteen, and Ralph, fifteen—to him the dearest, most precious possession on earth.

In his young brotherhood he accepted Christ as his Savior during the ministry of Rev. E. C. Mason. He became a member of the United Brethren church whose principles have been dear to him. During his last days at home, he talked of the consolation and peace that he enjoyed because of sins forgiven and expressed a great desire to live a Christian life to outshine the trials of life and receive a Christian reward.

He leaves to mourn his going his beloved companion, his son, Ralph, and daughter, Ruth; his only brother, Guy, one sister, Cora; one half-sister, Mrs. Ida Wardell, of Wilmont, O.; a niece Fern Scattergood; and three nephews, Carl Scattergood, of near Corunna, Ind.; Ray Weimer, of Beach City, Ohio; and Heuber Weimer, of Canton, O. Other relatives and a large circle of friends also mourn his going.

Funeral services were conducted from the home, Rev. F. F. DeGroff officiating, assisted by Rev. Bowman. Interment was made in Circle Drive cemetery near Hudson, Ind.

OBITUARY OF WAYNE RODELL PAIRAN, 2 YEARS OF AGE

Wayne Rodell Pairan, the only child of Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Pairan of Kendallville, Ind., was born June 18, 1924, and died January 28, 1927, aged 2 years, 7 months and 10 days.

About eight days before his death he took sick with influenza. From the very beginning it seemed to settle in his vital organs which developed into peritonitis and paralysis, causing his untimely death.

Every assistance that loving hands and medical science could render was unavailing. It seems that his destiny had been sealed and his days numbered. We bow in humble submission and say, "Thy will be done."

His keen intellect and charming ways endeared him not only to his grief-stricken parents, but to all those who knew him.

Neighbors and friends unite in extending their heartfelt sympathy to the parents and commend them to a loving Heavenly Father who has taken charge of their precious child.

Our hearts unite with the poet who said:

Other refuge have I none
Hangs my helpless soul on Thee;
Leave, O leave me not alone,
Still support and comfort me.

SHIRLEY ANNE McMASTER

Obituary

Shirley Anne McMaster, youngest child of Francis and Lillie McMaster, was born Sept. 3, 1938, and went to her eternal home on February 18, 1941, at the tender age of two years, five months and fifteen days. Services were held February 20, 1941 at Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren. Burial was made at Fairfield cemetery.

The entire life of little Shirley Anne was spent in the vicinity of Fairfield Center, in Fairfield Twp., DeKalb County, Indiana. She suffered from influenza a few weeks ago, but seemed to be improving satisfactory until about midnight of Sunday, Feb. 16. She was given every possible care, but succumbed after the breaking of an extremely high fever, shortly after noon on Tuesday, February 18, 1941.

There remains to mourn her departure her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Francis McMaster, her brother, Howard, her sister, Joan, and four grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. George McMaster, of Brandon, Manitoba, Canada and Mr. and Mrs. George Smithard, of Rapid City, Manitoba. Besides these of the immediate family, their remains also many other relatives and friends.

There's a home for little children

Where Jesus reigns in glory,

A home of peace and joy;
No home on earth is like it,
Nor can with it compare;
For every one is happy

Nor could be happier, there.

CARD OF THANKS

Acknowledge with grateful appreciation the kindness and sympathy extended during the bereavement of our loving daughter and sister also the services rendered by Rev. Sherman, Dr. Van Nest and the Gerig Funeral Home.

ORON BAIR DIES OF HEART ATTACK

Well Known Farmer Found Dead in Bed at His Home in Fairfield Township

The funeral of the late Oron Bair, one of DeKalb county's most prominent farmers, was held at the Fairfield Center church Friday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

The Rev. Charles Brand officiated and burial was made in Fairfield Center cemetery.

Mr. Bair died suddenly about 8 o'clock Wednesday morning at his home a short distance north of Fairfield Center. His daughter, Mrs. Orda Zonker, wife of Forrest Zonker, and her husband resided with him. He arose Wednesday morning as usual and made the fire, but he complained of not feeling well and returned to bed. A short time later his daughter went to his room and found he had expired. A heart attack was the cause.

Mr. Bair had been failing for the last year, but was able to be about as usual. He was at Martinsville, Ind., only recently taking the baths.

The body was prepared at the Swank funeral home at Ashley and was returned home Thursday afternoon.

Mr. Bair was seventy-six years of age and was a native of Fairfield township. A democrat in politics, he served his township as trustee and he also was secretary-treasurer for many years of the Fairfield Center Cemetery association. He acted as administrator of numerous estates.

Mrs. Bair has been dead a number of years. The only surviving near relative is the daughter.

LIFE OF ORVILLE, SON OF CLINTON GETTS AND WIFE

Orville Franklin, son of Clinton and Mabel Getts, was born July 5th, 1924, and died July 10th, aged 4 days.

He leaves to mourn his departure his father, mother, one sister, Dorothy, two grandfathers, two grandmothers, two great grandfathers and one great grandmother and a host of relatives and friends.

As the sweet flower that scents the morn,

But withers in the rising day,

Thus lovely was this infant's dawn,

Thus swiftly fled its life away.

It died ere its expanding soul,

Had ever burnt with wrong desire,

Had ever spurned at heaven's control,

Or ever quenched its sacred fires.

Yet the sad hour that took the boy,

Perhaps had spared a heavier doom—

Snatched him from scenes of guilty joy,

Or from the pangs of ill to come.

He died to sin; he died to care;

But for a moment felt the rod;

Then, rising on the viewless air,

Spread his light wings and soared to God.

Services were conducted at the home Friday forenoon by Rev. C. C. Cripe, pastor of the Cedar Lake Church of the Brethren. Interment was made at the Fairfield Center cemetery.

MICHAEL REINOEHL

Pioneer of Fairfield Township Passed Away Sunday Evening.

Michael Reinoehl passed away at his home in Fairfield township Sunday evening at about eight o'clock. He had been in poor health for a long time. He was one of the early settlers of the township coming there in 1856 and buying the 160 acre tract which has ever since been the home of he and his wife. Fifty-six years on one farm is a long time and few, indeed, are there who can equal it. He was eighty-six years of age.

He leaves an aged companion, one son, G. M. Reinoehl, of Hudson and one daughter, Mrs. Adaline Wyrich, who lives with them. He was also the foster father of J. W. Johnson of this city whom he took at the age of three years and reared to manhood. The funeral will be held on Wednesday at 10 o'clock.

Mrs. Fanny Perkins, aged 80 years, died at the home of her son Samuel last Friday evening about 6 o'clock from the infirmities of age. Funeral services were held Sunday at 2:00 P. M. at Pleasant Chapel. Burial was made at Fairfield Cemetery. She is survived by two sons, Samuel and Jacob, nine grandchildren and seventeen great grandchildren.

Aunt Fanny Perkins was a familiar figure in our community during the time that the Wabash R. R. had their division point here. Each day rain or shine, winter or summer, she drove a fat carriage horse slowly to town, never traveling faster than a slow walk and giving him frequent rest periods. Gently slapping the reins when she felt he should show a little more speed.

She was always attired in a lustrous black skirt and fitted basque with a neat Quaker bonnet encircling her kindly face.

The old-fashioned buggy was laden with all kinds of good things to eat, butter, dressed poultry, cottage cheese, fruit butters and numerous other goodies tucked away for the children. Always dealing kindly and honestly with her patrons.

Aunt Fanny of gentle manner and cheery greeting will be sadly missed.

Helen Perkins

HUDSON — Helen Ruth Perkins, 77, died Monday at 1:45 p.m. in Auburn.

Mrs. Perkins was a homemaker and lived on DeKalb County Road 11, Hudson. She had worked at Monsanto in Ligonier and Weatherhead in Angola. She was a member of Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, Ashley, and the Ladies of the Elks in Garrett.

She was born March 28, 1920, in Kendallville to the late Fred and Minnie (Whitski) Kline.

She married Ford M. Perkins on Dec. 24, 1937, in the Russell Sherman home in Garrett, and he survives.

Also surviving are two sons, Jerry and Fred, both of Hudson; two daughters, Sandy Brown and Trudy Boyd, both of Hudson; two sisters, Della Whetzel of Hudson and Dorothy Owen of Kendallville; 16 grandchildren and 33 great-grandchildren.

Two brothers, Robert and Alfred, preceded her in death.

Friends may call Wednesday from 4-8 p.m. in Feller Funeral Home, Waterloo.

Services will be conducted Thursday at 10 a.m. in the funeral home, with burial in Fairfield Cemetery, rural Corunna.

Memorial contributions may be given to the DeKalb County Heart Fund or the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren.

William High

William High, the son of Richard and Anne High was born in Fairfield township, DeKalb county, Indiana, Sept. 22, 1848, and departed this life April 21, 1912. He was united in marriage with Elizabeth Achemire, June 30, 1875, and with his wife settled on the home place two and one-half miles east of Fairfield Center, where they have lived for thirty-five years. To them were born four sons, Albert, the eldest dying in infancy, Perry, Purd and Clyde. He also leaves seven grandchildren, one brother, Edward High, and one sister, Mrs. Jerry Perkins, and a host of neighbors and friends to mourn their loss. He was a kind neighbor and friend and will be missed by all especially his family.

A precious one from us is gone,

A voice forever stilled;

A place is vacant in our home,

Which never can be filled.

Theresa Mae Stomm

WATERLOO — Theresa Mae Stomm, 89, died Friday at 6:10 p.m. in the Meadowhaven Nursing Home, Butler.

NATIVE OF DEKALB COUNTY DIES IN FORT WAYNE AT 71

A native of DeKalb county, Miss Hazel A. Getts, 71, of Fort Wayne, died at the St. Joseph's hospital in Fort Wayne at 8:25 p.m. Wednesday. Miss Getts had been in ill health for several years.

The body was removed to the C. M. Sloan & Sons funeral home in Fort Wayne where services will be conducted at 2:30 p.m. Saturday. The Rev. John M. Kirkpatrick will officiate at the services and burial will follow in Woodlawn cemetery, near Auburn.

She was born in DeKalb county but had resided in Fort Wayne for over 40 years. She retired as sales clerk at Frank's in Fort Wayne six years ago after being employed there for 34 years.

Miss Getts was a member of the Trinity Methodist church in Fort Wayne and the Lydia circle of the church.

Survivors include two brothers, Ralph Ray of Fort Wayne and John of Ashley, along with several nieces and nephews.

LIFE OF MRS. ERNA KESSLER WHO DIED AT AGE 36 YEARS

Mabel E. Kessler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Urey of Ashley, Ind., was born in Fairfield township, May 22, 1896, and died July 2, 1932 at the age of 36 years, 1 month and 10 days.

On February 18, 1917, she was married to Erna C. Kessler. To this union was born one son, Eldon, age 10 years, who with his father survives.

Mabel accepted Christ and became a member of the Church of the Brethren when she was only 15 years old in which faith she remained until her death.

About five weeks ago she became suddenly ill with pluro-pneumonia and in spite of every effort of physicians and loving friends she gradually became worse until death called her.

Her father, a minister in the Church of the Brethren, preceded her in death August 31, 1925.

Three sisters and two brothers also preceded her in death. Besides her heart-broken husband and son, her mother, Mrs. John Urey of Ashley, a brother, George, of Seattle, Wash., and a sister, Mrs. Carl Thomas of Kendallville, Ind., are left to mourn her departure.

She was a faithful companion, a devoted mother and a consistent Christian, which won for her a host of sincere friends.

Her form so dear has vanished now
Her spirit lingers still,
Although 'tis hard to give her up
We yield to His dear will.

A place is vacant in our house
'Tis hard to understand,
But we will hope to meet again
In a fairer, better land.

And when in His good time we go
To that blest home above,
Her mother heart will welcome us
To heaven's eternal love.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere thanks to the many kind neighbors and friends who assisted us in our time of sorrow.—Erna C. Kessler and Eldon Kessler.

ELMER J. PERKINS

Funeral services were held Wednesday at 2 p.m. for Elmer J. Perkins of Rt. 1, Hudson, in the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren of Ashley. The Rev. Lester Fike officiated. Burial was in the Fairfield Center cemetery.

Mr. Perkins died suddenly at the age of 61 of a heart attack at his home at 11 a.m. June 29. He had suffered heart attacks for the past 12 years.

He was born March 12, 1908 in Fairfield Twp. to Jacob and Cora Rheinoehl Perkins. He married Wava G. Nelson. He was a farmer.

Surviving with the wife are 3 daughters, Mrs. Joyce Oberlin, Fort Wayne, Mrs. Phyllis Parker, Pleasant Lake and Mrs. Lois Rinehart of Ashley; 2 sisters, Mrs. Daisy Parain, Corunna and Mrs. Hazel Getts of Ashley and 6 grandchildren.

He was a member of the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren near Ashley. The Kistler funeral home in Hudson was in charge of the arrangements.

FUNERAL FOR WOMAN WHO BURNED TO DEATH THURSDAY

Funeral services for Mrs. Goldie Tarlton, 34, wife of William Tarlton of two miles southwest of Ashley, were held Thursday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock (DST) at Pleasant Chapel, south of Ashley. Rev. Russell Sherman was the officiating pastor and burial was in Fairfield Center cemetery. Mrs. Tarlton died Tuesday morning from deep burns suffered the night before.

Mrs. Tarlton had sent her small daughter, Helen, 12, for some fuel oil with which to build up a fire, Coroner John R. Clark said. The girl evidently got gasoline instead of the fuel oil. When she came back into the house, she started to pour it onto the bed of coals and the gasoline ignited. Her mother shouted to her to throw the can, and in her fear and confusion the daughter threw the can at her mother. The explosion caused deep burns over almost her entire body.

The husband, who came to the house when he heard her cries, suffered hand burns in his attempt to smother the flames of his wife's clothing. Helen also suffered minor burns.

RETIRED FARMER DIES AT BETZ NURSING HOME

A resident at the Betz Nursing home, north of Auburn, for the past eight years, Frank C. Nelson of the Hudson area, died at 3:15 a.m. Tuesday.

Mr. Nelson, 82, had been in failing health for the past 10 years and died from complications of age.

The body was removed to the Kistler funeral home in Hudson, where funeral services will be conducted at 2 p.m. Thursday.

The Rev. Riley Case, pastor of the Hudson Methodist church of which Mr. Nelson was a member, will officiate at the services and burial will be in Circle cemetery, near Hudson.

Mr. Nelson was born March 1, 1882, in Salem township, DeKalb county, the son of the late Stanley and Elizabeth Van Pelt Nelson. He had resided in the area around Hudson all of his lifetime.

He and Emma Ardell Leas were married in Hudson on Dec. 5, 1904. She preceded him in death on Sept. 6, 1959. Mr. Nelson was a retired farmer.

Survivors include a daughter, Mrs. Elmer Perkins of Rt. 1, Hudson; a son, Kenneth Nelson of Homer, Mich.; five grandchildren; five great-grandchildren, and a sister, Mrs. Tine Kennedy of LaGrange.

New deputy born to the badge

By Mindy Lacy

AUBURN — Growing up with a father who worked as a town marshal was the driving force behind Lee Stoy's career choice in the DeKalb County Sheriff's Department.

There was never any question in the new sheriff's deputy's mind. From boyhood until the first day Stoy set foot inside the sheriff's department, Stoy knew he would eventually climb the ladder of success until he was deemed a deputy.

The seed of law enforcement was planted in Stoy long ago while his father, Lee Stoy Sr., worked several years as the Hamilton town marshal.

"I always admired my father for putting his life on the line every time he went out the door to help someone," Stoy said.

Climbing the ladder has helped prepare him for his new job patrolling DeKalb County. Stoy said he has learned how to work with the two major aspects involved in this position — crime victims and criminal suspects.

"I know how it is on both ends of the spectrum," Stoy said. "I have dealt with both sides."

The first step in this seven-year career in the department was working as a jailer in the DeKalb County Jail. There Stoy learned "how to deal with the criminal element."

Note: 1st part retyped.
Edge was cut off.

"For the most part, they understand you're just doing your job," he said. "It's the best job you'll ever hate. It brings out the negative because you're dealing with people who are not there voluntarily."

Next, Stoy became a dispatcher and then an intake sergeant. He moved up into management in 1993 as a telecommunications director.

"Being in telecommunications prepared me mentally to working with the public," Stoy explained. "I learned how to talk to people."

Stoy also was gaining experience for his new job by working as a reserve officer for the Hamilton and Waterloo police departments.

Earlier this year, Stoy received the opportunity to work on the road as a sheriff's deputy because Sheriff Jay Oberholtzer vacated the position when he was elected. Stoy was permanently selected for the job by the department's merit board in May.

Stoy said he enjoys his new patrol position and also the fact that he is learning something new every day.

"This is unlike any other job I've ever had," Stoy said. "I enjoy that if I can't personally help someone that I am able to refer them to someone who can. I am able to meet so many diverse people. I've always enjoyed working with the public."

Stoy and his wife, Sondra, have two children and live in rural Waterloo.

ON PARADE — Children and adults from the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren wave to parade-watchers from their float at last weekend's Ashley Centennial celebration. The float's theme, seen on the side, was taken from the denomination's annual conference slogan. The cross logo, seen at the rear of the float, also was used at the Richmond, Va., conference in June, with the cross symbolizing the sacrifice of Christ, the heart representing the consecrated heart of the believer, and the grapes symbolizing the fruit of the spirit at work in the lives of persons. Barker's Chapel United Methodist also entered a float in the parade. (Star photo by Sheryl Prentice)

HONORED FOR SERVICE — These DeKalb Central bus drivers were honored Monday night for their years of service. From left are Bob Bainbridge, five years; Judy Pepple, 10 years; June Leas, 30 years; Harold Skelly, 45 years; Suzy Smith, five years; and Ruth Walters, 25 years.

Also recognized, but not present for the photo, were Deb Geeting, five years, and Karen Bickel, 15 years. Leas and Skelly received engraved clocks; the other drivers received pins. (Star photo by Sheryl Prentice)

Veteran bus drivers honored

By SHERYL PRENTICE

AUBURN — During dinner, table talk was stories from the front — of kids, field trips and blizzards — before the DeKalb Central Bus Drivers got down to the business of honoring their own.

Eight bus drivers received service pins, given in five-year increments, at the organization's spring dinner.

Harold Skelly and June Leas were honored with engraved clocks, a symbol of their longevity and endurance. Skelly has driven the same route in Fairfield Township for 45 years. Leas, also a Fairfield driver, has chalked up 30 years.

Skelly said he started driving in 1951, before school consolidation, when drivers had to bid on bus routes. His first bus was a 1936 Dodge, a photo of which he carries in his wallet.

Leas began driving in 1966, after her husband, Vance, also a driver, broke his arm. She said she loves her job.

"I wish I was 10 years younger, so I could drive 10 more years," said Leas.

The biggest changes they have seen have come in the buses — diesel now instead of gasoline, and bigger — and in the language their young riders use. Both said they have "learned words I've never

Bus drivers pray for extra abilities

AUBURN — Bus driver Brenda Bishop read this poem at the DeKalb Central Bus Drivers' spring dinner Monday night:

A Bus Driver's Prayer

Please Lord, watch over me this day. Please help me remember to watch all five mirrors, two dozen windows, eight gauges, six warning lights, six dozen faces, three lanes of traffic, and to keep a third eye open for wobbling bicycles and daydreaming pedestrians, especially teen-agers wearing headsets who are off in another world.

Please Lord, help me to hear train whistles, truck and automobile horns, police sirens and the two-way radio.

Please Lord, give me a hand for the gear lever, the steering wheel, the route book, the radio microphone, and the turn signal lever.

And Lord, please grant me the self-control to keep my hands from Johnny's neck! And one more thing, dear Lord, please don't let Mary be sick all over the bus.

And finally, Lord, please watch over us all so that we can do it all again next year.

heard before" but said the majority of kids they see every day are well-behaved.

"Overall, I have had some very nice kids," Leas said.

Both drivers have stories about the weather, and sliding around on the hills of Fairfield Township. Skelly said two of his riders once had to stay overnight at his home, because he couldn't get them home through a snowstorm. Leas said "you feel like a feather" when the bus begins to slide into the ditch on a snowy day.

Both drivers have seen generations of the same families during their tenure. Leas hauled the parents of some of her current riders. Skelly can beat that — he hauled the grandparents of some of his current riders.

President Ruth Walters said the 37 regular drivers had a total of 561 years of experience between them. In the 1994-95 school year, the last year for which statistics are available, DeKalb Central bus drivers drove a total of 601,123 miles.

Walters was re-elected president for another year at the meeting. Brenda Bishop will serve as vice president, and Tammy Barnhart as secretary-treasurer.

Thomas files for seat on school board

A Fairfield Township resident, John Dale Thomas, 52, Rt. 1, Ashley, has filed in County Clerk Norman Gerig's office as a candidate for DeKalb Central United School Board representing Fairfield, Smithfield and that part of Ashley in Steuben County.

Thomas, a DeKalb County native, is the son of Carl and Irma (Urey) Thomas and a Kendallville High School graduate. He received his degree in mechanical engineering from Tri State College and served in World War II with the Air Force.

He is employed as chief tool engineer and tool estimator at Magnavox Company, Fort Wayne. His father, an Ashley High School graduate, is a 40-year veteran school teacher and administrator of which 21 of 25 years with Kendallville school system as an administrator.

Thomas is married to Iris Skelly, an Ashley High School and Tri-State College graduate. The couple has three children: Karen R. Thomas, Fort Wayne; Mrs. Lealon (Anna) Stoy, Garrett; and Carla Thomas, a DeKalb High School sophomore.

The Thomases are members of Pleasant Chapel Church, near Ashley.

Rev. and Mrs. Russell A. Sherman and son, of Garrett, Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Hoover and son of New Paris, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hartman, Mrs. Ethel Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. John Reinoehl and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Thomas and daughter, and Mr. and Mrs. Dale Thomas and daughter, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Skelly. The occasion marked the 35th wedding anniversary of the Skellys.

Fair award goes to longtime couple

By KATHRYN BASSETT

AUBURN — Lester Hartman says his wife, Vergie, means as much to him today as she did when he married her 68 years ago.

"She's just the same to me today as the day I got her," he said with a smile as the couple sat on the DeKalb County Courthouse lawn Wednesday afternoon.

The Hartmans, who celebrated 68 years of marriage on June 18, took the prize for the longest-married couple at the DeKalb County Fair Old Settlers Day Wednesday.

The couple, who live west of Ashley, were married in a Waterloo parsonage. Mr. Hartman recalled, "We got the license in Auburn on Saturday before noon and married in the evening in the parsonage."

The Hartmans have two children, John Hartman and Nina Dove, eight grandchildren and eight great-grandchildren. Mr. Hartman said he enjoys bowling and Mrs. Hartman is a member of a Extension Homemakers club. They both attend the Heimach Senior Center in Auburn.

"We've had a good life together," said Mr. Hartman. He said the secret of a happy marriage is learning to live with each other. And Mrs. Hartman has a tip of her own — "Don't go home to momma," she added.

Other "Old Settlers" receiving awards Wednesday were: oldest man, LLOYD Myers, of Betz Nursing Home, who is 103; oldest woman, Esther Fitch, of Miller's Merry Manor, Garrett, who is 95; youngest man, Tony Wells, 43, of Waterloo; and youngest woman, Linda Decker, 40, of Auburn.

Anyone who has lived in DeKalb County for more than 40 years is eligible to register for the Old Settlers awards.

Wednesday's program was well attended and crowds enjoyed country and Western music and comedy from Joe Taylor's Redbirds.

Preschool plans open house

The Evening Star

APRIL 13, 1987

ASHLEY — The Pleasant Time Preschool will host an open house for prospective students and their parents on April 7 from 8:30-11 a.m. The preschool is located in the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, rural Ashley.

Teacher/Director Roselyn Wells said parents may observe the class, fill out forms and ask questions during the morning session.

"Our three-year-olds will host the open house, learning how to treat new children and guests. New children will have the sense of knowing the situation — they've been to the building before, and have met the teachers," she said.

Wells said the preschool is "child-oriented. Flexibility, the needs of the children, and spontaneous interests of the children will dominate our routine."

Other goals of the preschool, as listed in its operating policies, are:

b>To provide the opportunity to be with other children in a setting conducive to the development of wholesome social relationships.

b>To promote readiness for kindergarten through self-help skills, development of fine and gross motor skills, following directions, good use of time, proper use of materials, and respect for self and others.

To provide care for children while parents pursue their own interests.

b>To provide opportunities to grow in the understanding of child development through a planned educational program.

To help in meeting the needs of the community for an early childhood educational facility.

To contribute to the wholesome growth and development of the future citizens to the community.

To enhance the role of the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren as an integral part of the community.

To provide a setting where people of various religions and ethnic backgrounds can work together for a common interest.

Wells has been the teacher and director for four of the school's six years. Rosemary Hartman and Jim Wells serve as teacher aides.

Wells said that during a typical morning, the children begin with group play, followed by group time, when she does songs, fingerplays, or alphabet puppets. Sometimes she uses group time to talk about safety or "Show and Tell."

Students then work at tables, doing crafts such as fingerpainting or sandpainting. The four-year-olds use this time to work on kindergarten skills such as writing their own names or the alphabet. Three-year-olds work on social skills.

"After crafts, they can spend some free time in the book area," Wells said. "An active playtime follows, either indoor or outdoor, and then a quiet time where students may work with play-dough or color as their parents come to pick them up."

The school also takes a number of field trips, according to Wells, but the destinations vary from year to year. "We have tickets to Happy the Hobo in October," Wells said. Other field trips in the past have included hay rides to a nearby woods, Ag Day trips to the Deetz farm, and visits to the Prairie Heights Planetarium, Baker's orchard, the Humane Shelter, and the Fort Wayne Children's Zoo.

Wells also plans special days during the year. She gives each child a birthday cake on the appropriate day. Pirate Day gives the children a chance to make pirate hats and eye patches, walk the plank (a balance beam), and learn about the colors of silver and gold. They seek a treasure chest and read a Sesame Street pirate story and Peter Pan.

The children also have Indian Day, Clown Day, and various dress-up days. For Indian Day, Wells pops popcorn and shows the children corn meal. They learn about Indian lifestyles and folklore, and make necklaces and handbands to wear.

On Clown Day, Wells uses face makeup and made-ahead hats to allow everyone to be a clown for a day.

Wells adds to her repertoire of fresh ideas by regularly attending workshops and seminars. "I've been to classes on learning disabilities, eye problems, and parental involvement," she commented.

The Pleasant Time Preschool is a self-supporting program sponsored by the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren. For more information on the school, parents can call Wells at 587-3898 or the church at 587-3856.

The Evening Star

AUG. 25, 1992

ASHLEY — Amber McCann has been named as teacher/director of the Pleasant Time Preschool, located in the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, Ashley.

McCann is new to the Angola area from Pennsylvania, and graduated in December 1991 from Slippery Rock University in Pennsylvania with a degree in library science.

Pam Orwig has been selected as a teacher aide in the 3-year-old class, which meets Tuesdays and Thursdays, from 8:30-11 a.m. She brings a variety of experience as a child-care giver and 4-H leader to the preschool program.

Barbara Miller continues as a teacher aide for the 4- and 5-year-old class. This class meets Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays from 8:30-11 a.m.

The Pleasant Time Preschool is a 12-year, non-profit ministry of the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, located at County Road 8 and 19, 2 1/2 miles southwest of Ashley.

Its goals are to promote readiness for kindergarten through self-help skills, proper use of materials, and respect for oneself and others. The program provides students with an opportunity for wholesome growth and to be with others in a wholesome social setting and Christian environment.

Activities include field trips, academic preparation, and gross and fine motor skill development.

Parent orientation will be Wednesday, Sept. 2, at 7 p.m. at the church.

Classes begin Sept. 9, and size is limited. The registration fee is $10 and is non-refundable.

Preschool has open house for prospective students

ASHLEY — The Pleasant Time Preschool three-year-old class will host an open house for prospective new students on Thursday morning, from 8:30-11:30 a.m.

The preschool is located in the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, County Roads 8 and 19, Ashley.

Teacher-director Roselyn Wells said parents and children considering enrollment for the fall are invited to attend. For information on the preschool, call Wells at 587-3898 or the Pleasant Chapel Church office at 587-3856.

Three-year-old students are introduced to letters, numbers, and colors through puppet plays, games, fingerplays, songs, crafts, and coloring papers, Wells said.

Four-year-old students follow a pre-kindergarten program, developing a good attitude toward school and working on skills needed for kindergarten.

The preschool students go on various field trips. Special days such as Clown Day, Dinosaur Day, Pirate Day, and Indian Day are planned each month. The students also have holiday parties.

PRESCHOOL GRADUATES — This Pleasant Time Preschool four-year-old class will have a graduation program in May. Pictured are (front row) Lindsay Dilley, Vanessa Welmer, Tabatha Harr, Kearston Blomeke, D.J. Reed, Justin Kline, Adrienne Thomas, Shawn Berry, Nick

Ashley church selected for grant

ASHLEY — The Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren near Ashley is one of 18 churches in Indiana to receive a grant from Lilly Endowment Inc. for new ministries in their communities.

The Rev. Jess Schload, pastor of the church, said Pleasant Chapel received $2,500 to begin a Youth Club program for children in grades 1-5, and an additional $750 for professional training for the pastor. The program will begin this fall.

"The pastor will have a central role but will not be the director of the program," Schload said. The proposed Youth Club will be an afterschool activity which will include Bible study, a dinner hour, recreation, and a service hour of choir or service-oriented activities.

"Too often children think church is just for adults," Schload said. "I'm excited that we were picked (for the grant)."

Pleasant Chapel was one of the few rural churches selected from the 112 congregations that applied. Other congregations selected were from Fort Wayne, Indianapolis, Kokomo, Bedford, Lafayette, Mishawaka, Michigan City, Muncie, New Castle, Napoleon, South Bend, Tell City, and Walkerton.

The church completed a four-page application to submit to an ecumenical panel of judges, who favorably considered programs that used resources within the congregations, and which could be continued into the future and duplicated elsewhere.

The "New Ministries Project" is in the first year of a three-year program aimed at studying the efforts of churches to respond to the changing needs of their constituencies. The program is administered by the Synod of Lincoln Trails, the Presbyterian governing body for Indiana and Illinois. Carl R. Smith will direct the program.

MARY ALICE BRAND ENTERS COLLEGE AT NO. MANCHESTER

Sept. 8—North Manchester Ind.—Miss Mary Alice Brand, of Ashley, Indiana, enrolled in Manchester College as a freshman today. Miss Brand is the youngest freshman to enroll in this year's class. She was valedictorian of the Class of 1941 of Ashley High School, where she also worked in the office of the principal, Fred Frederick, was a member of the band and orchestra, and was active in many other school activities. Miss Brand is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Brand. She is taking work to prepare for music supervising in the public schools.

Baby talk 1990

Gabriel Austin was born January 26 in Parkview Hospital, Fort Wayne, to Mike and Karen (Raines) Reinoehl of Ashley. He weighed 7 pounds, 4 ounces, and joins a sister, Andrea, 4, at home.

Grandparents are the Rev. William and Jeannean Raines of Huntertown, and Paul and Jean Reinoehl of Ashley.

The baby's great-grandparents are Louise Midgah of Huntertown, and Calledith Raines of Hagerstown, Md.

Miss Anna M. Thomas of the Pleasant Chapel Church of the Brethren, Ashley, was among the 200 church delegates from 11 states who participated Feb. 2 to 7 in a youth seminar at Washington, D. C., and the United Nations, New York.

The seminar was a first hand study of government and was sponsored by the Church of the Brethren. The theme of the seminar was "Government is the Christian's Business."

Richard W. Reuter, special assistant to the president and director of the Food for Peace program, opened the seminar on Sunday evening. On Monday the seminar attended meetings on

United States foreign policy at the Department of State, visited several foreign embassies, and held a discussion on disarmament with George E. Brown, representative from California.

On Tuesday the seminar divided into small groups to visit legislators, committee hearings, and congress, discussed the draft, alternative service, and Brethren Volunteer Service programs and heard Rep. E. Ross Adair and Rep. J. Edward Roush, representatives from Indiana.

The Wednesday morning program consisted of discussions on racial integration and on methods of effective political action. That afternoon visits were made to the Supreme Court, Library of Congress, Church of the Brethren Washington Office, several government agencies, and other places of interest. The highlight of Wednesday evening was an address by newsmen Glenn Everett.

On Thursday and Friday in New York the seminar attended sessions of the United Nations, visited foreign missions to the U. N., and met with U. N. staff leaders.

The Brethren Youth Seminar this year was the sixteenth in the history of the program.

Miss Thomas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dale Thomas, Rt. 1, Ashley, is a Junior in the Ashley High School. Feb 1-1964

The summer Pastor problem was discussed and it was revealed that Bro Charles Imler now a student at Bethany college and whose home is in Auburn would be available for Pastoral work this summer.

A motion was made by Joseph Ober give Bro Imler a call to the church as Pastor during the summer months.

The motion was seconded by Russell Hartman. A vote by ballot revealed that an overwhelming majority were in favor of the motion.

Mrs Joseph Ober announced that all persons wishing to subscribe for the Gospel Messenger should let her know very soon.

A check was made on the number of subscriptions for the next year.

It was hoped that 75% of the families would subscribe for the year in order to get the 1.25 rate.

hold this the Friday evening following Thanksgiving. The Ministerial Committee to prepare for visiting ministers to be present at this time.

The Ministerial Committee was instructed to arrange for evangelistic services in the near future.

The Ministerial problem was discussed, with Carl E. Thomas, appointed by Elder R. A. Sherman to act as Moderator since Bro. Sherman was to be considered. The propositions of various ministers were given and considered, but this question was left over for further consideration and the Ministerial Committee was instructed to care for preaching services until a permanent pastor was secured.

Nov. 6, 1938.

Members of Pleasant Chapel Church met in council with Rev. Helen Bowman as our elder. Several hymns were sung in the opening period. Rev. R.A. Sherman opened meeting with responsive readings on p. 297, "Gods just Rule". Prayer hymn was sung followed by prayer by Rev. Sherman. This was followed by remarks by Elder Bowman.

The business for consideration was the pastoral problem. Rev. R.A. Sherman's name was submitted for our pastor. Rev. R.A. Sherman made a few remarks and left meeting while problem was under consideration. Discussion followed as to number of sermons per month and the amount that could be paid for such services. A motion was made and carried to ask Rev. Sherman to preach two sermons per month, do pastoral work over one week end per month and visit the sick as need arise for the remuneration of $15 per month. This was then presented to Rev. Sherman for consideration. Rev. Sherman reported that he could not do this because of extra mileage involved in doing pastoral work for the stated sum of $15 per month. Discussion followed and then a motion was made and passed to raise remuneration to $20 per month for the same services as was before proposed. Rev. Sherman accepted this proposal and also to have it understood that this continue only till something better could be done for the cause and the work at Pleasant Chapel.

No other business called for or considered the meeting was closed by prayer by Elder Bowman.

Oct. 23, 1940.

Brother R. A. Sherman called a business meeting for Wed. eve Oct. 23. As Rev. Sherman was ill he asked Bro. C. E. Thomas to act as moderator of this meeting. The meeting was opened with song and responsive reading, "His Benefits" were read followed by prayer by Bro. Thomas.

He then entered into the business part of the meeting. The trustees discussed and gave reports on various bids on furnaces from these companies, Sears, Holland, Nowagiac and Majestic. It was finally decided to cross out Nowagiac and Majestic and to consider Sears + Holland. It was also decided to buy the furnace without the thermostat. A vote was taken on Sears and Holland, this vote to show trend of opinion, which the trustees wished. This vote stood, 5 for Sears, 18 for Holland. The trustees were asked to again consider these furnaces look over each more carefully and try to come to a decision on the purchase of a furnace. The problem of a new janitor was brought up as

 Bro. Elmer Potts wished to resign. Bro. Paul Reiockl agreed to try doing this and he and the trustees to decide about price for such services after
 Paul had tried it awhile.
 There was some talk about having fires built on Saturday nights in very cold weather and this to be kept <sup>up</sup> of by janitor and extra remuneration given for such services. Meeting closed by song and prayer by Bro. Joseph Ober.

Members of Pleasant Chapel Church met in Council with Rev. Galen Bowman, our elder, presiding.

The meeting was opened by Rev. John D. Frederick reading the 13th chapter of 1st Corinthians and leading in prayer.

Elder Bowman then called for letters to be granted or to be received. There were none. Called for reading minutes of previous Council, but church book was not there, so dispensed with this.

Problem of a communion left up to the deacon board.

The special problem before the Council was to get a ~~new~~ pastor as Rev. Sherman did not wish to serve longer.

In this regard the question of a Joint Program with Cedar Lake Church was brought up. A motion was made, seconded and passed for our Ministerial Board to investigate the possibilities of a Joint Program with Cedar Lake Church. A vote was taken by ballot on this and it was nearly unanimous to do this. Bro. S. C. Perkins was elected as the Brethren Service Secretary for our church.

Bro. Joseph Ober moved to enlarge Ministerial Board to include the whole deacon board of the church, which added S. C. Perkins + E. E. Thomas to the board. This was seconded and passed, This enlargement of the <sup>regular</sup> Ministerial Board to help the Ministerial Board to solve the present
Ministerial Problem.

The name of Clarence Rosenberger was made as the name of a minister to be considered. It was left to Ministerial Board to arrange for Rev. Rosenberger to give us a service.

Rev. Sherman expressed appreciation to the church for their cooperation and helpfulness during the time he had served as pastor.

The council was closed by prayer by Elder Bowman.

April 26, 1941.

The members of Pleasant Chapel church met in council with our elder, Helen Bowman, presiding.

Rev. Ira Long, of Middlebury, a member of District Ministerial Board was present also. Rev. Long led the devotions in this meeting.

The joint recommendations that were made in the joint council of Pleasant Chapel and Cedar Lake churches were taken up and considered.

Recommendation No. 1, which was that alternate Sunday morning services, Pleasant Chapel, the first and third Sunday and Cedar Lake the second & fourth. Further arrangements than this to be worked out by joint Boards and pastor. This recommendation was passed.

Recommendation No. 2 which was to recommend a centrally located place to live for the pastor. Heber Haynes & Joseph Oke was appointed as a committee to find such a place, if possible. This recommendation was passed.

Recommendation No. 3 which was that each church should 283 not attempt to pay more than $500 per year at the present time, and the Joint Board feel that $1000 per year is not sufficient to support the type of man needed, and therefore recommend that we ask District Mission Board to make an investment in work here for an indefinite time.

This recommendation was not passed and it was voted to refer the whole question of No. 3 back to Ministerial Board for further consideration and also refer Recommendations 4 & 5 back also to Ministerial Board for further consideration.

Recommendation 4 was that the Board recommends $100 per month besides house rent as remuneration for pastor.

Recommendation No. 5 was to extend a call to Rev. Rosenberg.
